THE importance of compiling the history of Masonry in Galena, that the names of our early Masonic workers may be preserved to the Craft, has often been suggested by the members of Miners' Lodge No. 273. No more fitting time has presented itself than the present, when new by-laws were to be published by at least three of the four Masonic bodies in this city, and by combining all the codes in one book, the expense of a separate publication is avoided, and the work bound in a form which will insure its preservation.

The value of such a record cannot be too highly estimated, embracing as it does, the names of many of the earliest and most prominent settlers of the mining regions, active alike in Masonry as they were in all the public measures of the day.

The difficulties attending the writing of this history will be better understood when it is known that the first Lodge—"Strangers' Union"—was organized before the arrival of the U. S. Agent, Capt. Martin Thomas, who came to take charge of the mineral lands on behalf of the Government and to lay out the "village" of Galena, two years before the publication of the first newspaper in this the Northwest.

If the Masonic record be incomplete, the brethren will bear in mind that it is owing to three reasons: First, there are no records preserved of the early meetings of Strangers' Union Lodge No. 14. Second, we have no knowledge that any member of the old Lodge is living at the present day. Third, there was no newspaper published in the lead region at that time to whose files we may refer for a record of the event.

CHAPTER I.

STRANGERS' UNION LODGE NO. 14 FROM 1826 TO JUNE 11TH, 1829.

The "History of Masonry in Illinois," written by authority of the Grand Lodge, makes no mention of a Lodge in Galena until the presenting of a petition to the Grand Lodge of Missouri Dec. 29th, 1838, praying that a charter be granted to the "Far West Lodge."

The historian, Bro. John C. Reynolds, did all in his power to get a complete record of the Lodges chartered by the old Grand Lodge of Illinois, which became defunct in 1829, but, owing to carelessness in keeping records of Lodges, and the destruction of the Archives of the Grand Lodge by fire, many important facts connected with the early history of Masonry in this State have been lost to the Craft; and for the same reason the Craft in this city are unable to fix the date of the organization of their first Lodge.

"Strangers' Union No. 14" was the first Lodge constituted north of Fulton County and west of Lake Michigan, and was regularly at work in 1826, having been authorized at the January session of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, held in the State House in the town of Vandalia. From that veteran craftsman, Bro. P. M. and Sir Knight, Capt. H. H. Gear, we learn that the names of the first officers of this Lodge were BRO. LERMON PARKER, W. M.; BRO. MOSES MEEKER, S. W.; BRO. BENSON HUNT, J. W.; BRO. L. P. VAUSBURG, Treas. and BRO. JAMES HARRIS, Sec., and that his brother Charles Gear was present in 1826, when it was constituted. The most laborious research of papers and enquiries of the only living Masons, Bros. H. H. Gear and C. C. P. Hunt, who appear of record as frequent visitors in 1827, fail to give the desired information as to when this Lodge was organized.

The first authentic record of "Strangers' Union Lodge No. 14" bears date April 21st, 1827, and is as follows:

GALENA, April 21st, A. L. 5827.

"Strangers' Union Lodge No. 14 met pursuant to adjournment. Members present, Chas. Gear, W. M.; James Harris, S. W. pro. tem.; Benson Hunt, J. W.; L. P. Vausburg, Treas.; G. W. Britton, Sec.; M. Meeker, S. D.; M. Fancette, J. D.; W. Spear, Tyler, and Bro. Daniel Moore.

On motion of Bro. Harris:

Resolved, That the sum of ten dollars be paid for the first or Entered Apprentice degree, five dollars for the Fellow Craft degree, and ten dollars for the Master Mason degree.

Bro. Sec. presented the petition of John J. Chandler, which was read and referred to a Committee of Bros. Meeker, Harris and Vausburg.

On motion of Bro. Harris:

Resolved, That Bro. Meeker be authorized to procure a suitable Lodge room.

On motion of Bro. Harris:

Resolved, That the regular communication of this Lodge be held on the Thursday of or preceeding the full moon in each month.

On motion of Bro. Harris:

Resolved, That Bro. Sec. be authorized to procure necessary stationery for the Lodge.

On motion of Bro. Britton:

Resolved. That a committee of three be appointed to examine petitions and applications for membership.

Bros. Harris, Hunt and Vansburg were appointed the committee.

On motion of Bro Britton:

Resolved. That a committee of three be appointed to revise our By-Laws, and report amendments at our next regular communication.

Bros. C. Gear, M. Meeker and G. W. Britton were appointed the committee.

Lodge closed in harmony."

This is the first record we find of a regular chartered Lodge. The motions to fix the fees for degrees, time of meeting, and rent a suitable room to meet in, would seem to indicate that the Lodge had been but recently organized, but the last motion, "that a committee be appointed to revise our By-Laws and report amendments," taken with the statement of Bro. H. H. Gear, "we had no regular place of meeting. The Lodge was poor and rents high," are satisfactory proof to us that this Lodge was at work as early as 1826.

No later record of the old Grand Lodge of Illinois has been found than January 10th, 1826, at which session charters were granted to Illion Lodge No. 12 and Frontier Lodge No. 13. The latter at Lewiston, Fulton County. In Bro. Reynolds' history of "Masonry in Illinois," we find two more Lodges recorded, Nos. 14 and 15. The former named "La-Fayette," the latter "Sangamon;" locations unknown. This statement is incorrect, as the records of the session of January, 1826, show that charters were granted to Nos. 12 and 13, and no subsequent record having been found there can be no doubt that No. 14 was our Galena Lodge "Strangers' Union," for which a dispensation may have been granted in said session, as charters are not granted until the ability of the officers and brethren to do good and true Masonic work has been fully tested. We are more inclined, however, to believe that a regular charter was granted at this session from the fact that the No. "14" is borne upon all the records of "Strangers' Union Lodge."

The absence of any later record of the "Old" Grand Lodge of Illinois, the loss by fire in the building of the Galena Branch of the State Bank of Illinois of the charter, early records and papers of "Strangers' Union" Lodge, and the change in officers from those named by Bro. Capt. H. H. Gear, which properly took place in December, 1826, are satisfactory evidence that the banner of Ancient Craft Masonry was first unfurled and the fires kindled upon its alter in the city of Galena as early as the summer of 1826.

The next regular communication was held May 11th, when we find recorded the names of two visitors who have since taken an active part in the affairs of this city, one of whom, Dr. A. T. Crow, has passed the "Grand Tyler" and been admitted in the Grand Lodge above. The other is still an honored brother among us, Capt. H. H. Gear.

Mr. John J. Chandler was made an E. A. A resolution was adopted admitting any brother to membership who "assisted at the instituting of the Lodge" on the payment of one dollar and fifty cents, the cost to the original members. These meetings were held in the month of June. Several petitions were acted upon and work done in the E. A. degree. Bro. Dr. A. Philleo, for many years afterward a prominent citizen, appears as a visitor. Officers were elected on the 23d as follows: Chas. Gear, W. M.; Benson Hunt, S. W.; Jas. Smith, J. W.; James Harris, Treas.; Joseph Hardy, Sec.

One meeting was held in July and another committee appointed "to secure a proper Lodge room."

Aug. 2d.—Lodge met. Officers installed and several brothers elected on demit. A curious custom prevailed as appears from these old records, of suspending sections 18 and 21 of their by-laws, that a ballot might be spread upon petitions the night of presentation. This was a clear violation of one of the "old regulations" approved St. John the Baptist's day, 1721, which reads thus: "No man can be accepted a member of a particular Lodge without previous notice one month before given to the Lodge, in order to make due enquiry into the reputation and capacity of the candidate, unless by a Dispensation."

By-Laws were also suspended for the purpose of Passing and Raising, without having first passed an examination as to proficiency in Masonic knowledge. This also was improper and in violation of old regulations. Yet good and true men were these old Masons coming together from every locality in the mining region, their Master from the upper waters of "Fevre" River near Shullsburg, and many from Mineral Point, Platteville and Dubuque, Wisconsin "Territory," Elizabeth, Savanna and other distant points in our own State, all actuated by the same earnest love of Masonry which has distinguished its votaries from time immemorial.

The next communication was in October, when we find the name of another brother recorded as a visitor, Dr. H. Newhall, since deceased. A man and a Mason long and well known for his active labors in the cause of humanity, a skillful physician and a practical philanthropist. Bro. Newhall joined this Lodge on demit, and for many years was an active member of the Masonic fraternity. Two of his sons have received light in Miners' Lodge No. 273, and found companionship in Jo Daviess Chapter No. 51. Israel Mitchell was initiated.

November 1st, Bro. John J. Chandler, the first initiate of the Lodge, was Passed and Raised. Two other meetings for general work were held during the month.

December 16th and 27th, Lodge met and did work in the E. A. degree. At the latter meeting, T. B. Farnsworth, a brother long an active member of all subsequent Lodges in this city, was initiated.

January 31st, A. L. 5828 three brothers were Passed, one of whom was Bro. Farnsworth. At the meetings in March and April the work was of a general character and in the several degrees.

May 29th an election of officers was had, resulting as follows: Moses Meeker, W. M.; Daniel Murphy, S. W.; M. Faucette, J. W.; Jas. Harris, Treas.; J. J. Chandler, Sec. These officers were initiated June

3d, and the following appointments made: Bro. F. S. Clopton, S. D.; Bro. R. R. Holmes, J. D. A committee was appointed to "procure a suitable room for our next regular communication." This committee failing to report, another one was appointed July 24th, with orders to rent for "four months or a year!"

Evidence of prosperity is here indicated in the presentation of three petitions: One from J. H. Rountree, since a prominent citizen of Wisconsin. And the Craft were fully justified in their desperation to incur so great a liability as the renting of a room for four months, or even one year.

The W. M., Moses Meeker, presented his bill of $96.24, money paid out for the Craft, which on motion of P. M. Chas. Gear, was ordered paid "out of money not otherwise appropriated."

Now as special orders had been drawn for almost every article which could have been desired or required for the work of the Lodge, we may reasonably infer that this sum of money was for "refreshments" had at the recent installation. Further evidence of prosperous times is found in the order to print 200 copies of the By-Laws, by Mr. Jones, for which they paid the sum of $25. Here is the first record of a Printing Office in Galena.

Records of this meeting are attested by Moses Meeker W. M., and J. J. Chandler, Sec.

From July until Dec. the records are missing. Sunday Dec. 1st, a Lodge of sorrow was held and preparations made to attend the funeral of Bro.

Thos. H. January. Officers all present except treasurer, which office Bro., H. Newhall was called upon to fill and Bro., A. Philleo that of S. D.

All arrangements being perfected, the Lodge adjourned until Monday, Dec., 1st, at 9 o'clock A. M.

The records of this meeting exhibit so fully the spirit of Masonry as exemplified by the brethren of "Strangers' Union Lodge" that we give them in full:

"MONDAY, Dec. 2d, A. L. 5828, 9 o'clock.

"Lodge met pursuant to adjournment.

"The Lodge then proceeded to take charge of the funeral of Bro. Thos. H. January, who was buried according to the Ancient Masonic custom.

"Visiting Brethren—Abner Fields, A. T. Crow, H. H. Gear, Jas. Douglass, of Davis Lodge No. 22, Lexington, — Woodbridge, L. Franklin, Union Lodge No. 7, Mo., and Morris Holmes, of Morning Lodge, Albany.

"Moved and seconded, that a committee of five be appointed to remove the body of our deceased brother's wife to the place of his interment. The following were the committee: Bros. A. T. Crow, A. Philleo, Jas. Harris, Abner Fields and M. Faucette.

"Lodge closed in Harmony.

"J. J. CHANDLER, Sec.

"M. MEEKER, Master."

We regret that the Secretary forgot that good Masonic usage, which requires that the names of all the brethren present be recorded, as there is no doubt but there was a large attendance; and that this was the first funeral in the great north-west where the solemn and beautiful rites of Free Masonary were observed.

December 13th, the W. M. read an address relative to the propriety of surrendering the charter. On motion it was resolved, "that the charter be retained and G. L. dues paid for 1827-8."

The usual committee was appointed "to procure a suitable Lodge room."

December 20th, Brother Fields, Harris and Gear, were appointed a committee "to make arrangements for celebrating the 27th, by providing a dinner, and obliging some brother to deliver an address."

Here is how they celebrated "Saturday December 27th, A. L. 5828."

"Lodge met pursuant to adjournment, when the brethren proceeded to celebrate this day in due and ancient form.

"On motion of Bro. Chandler and seconded by Bro. Hunt, that Bros. A and B be not permitted to walk in procession to-day. Carried by a unanimous vote of the Lodge."

The Lodge then proceeded to celebrate the day (parade we presume,) and then adjourned until 6 o'clock P. M., when it again convened pursuant to adjournment.

"On motion the 21st section of the By-Laws was dispensed with for the time being. Bro. Sec. presented and read the petition of Benjamin Dolrey for Masonry. Referred to a committee of Bros. Murphy, Harris and Hunt.

"The Lodge was then opened in the 2d degree and proceeded to confer the F. C. degree upon Bros. Barrel and Morse.

"Bro. Sec. presented and read the petition of D. B. Morehouse for Masonry, which was referred to a committee of Bros. Holmes, Hunt and Chandler

"On motion, Bros. Chandler, Holmes and Faucette were appointed a committee to get Bro. Chas. Gear to lecture from day to day, until the brethren had made such advance as would enable them to work.

"Visiting brethren—Bros. Abner Fields, Jas. Clark, Charles C. P. Hunt, H. H. Gear, Jonathan Brown, Culver Woodburn, A. Philleo, H. Newhall, Eliot Kerney, Philip Rosebrough, of Western Star Lodge No. 1, Kaskaskia, Thos. Moore, Edon Lodge No. 11, and Robt. Adams, of Union Lodge No. 7.

"Lodge closed in Harmony."

Our curiosity being excited to know why those two bros. "A" and "B" were "not permitted to walk in the procession" we have made repeated enquiries of Bros. H. H. Gear and C. C. P. Hunt, but they have as steadily refused, and ask the indulgence of the Craft for the refusal, pleading that they were the guests of Strangers' Union Lodge on that occasion, and that it would be improper and discourteous to disclose anything which took place during that “celebration in due and ancient form, Dec. 27th, 1828.”

Remembering the social customs of those early days, from which not even our fraternity was exempt and the fact, that Galena was a frontier town, outside the palefall of civilization, we submit, that the brethren were excusable for being tired so early in the day, and thus getting excused from joining in the procession.

January 2nd, A. L. 5829.—D. B. Morehouse for many years so well known as Captain Morehouse was initiated. Brother Morehouse took an active part in Masonry until his death in 1870, holding membership at that time in Miner's Lodge No. 273 and Jo Daviess Chapter No. 51.

On the 3rd inst., Brother T. B. Farnsworth, also a member of the above named Lodge and Chapter at the time of his death, was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason.

Here occurs a period of unusual prosperity and press of work reminding the brethren of Miner's Lodge of the charge so often made, that they frequently work “eight nights in the week.” To this we may plead guilty, with this qualification, that we do not, never have, and never will do other work on the Sabbath, than that of a Lodge of sorrow. Our brethren of Strangers' Union Lodge did not however hesitate to do general work, and confer degrees on the Sabbath, and we for one say, they were excusable. Situated as they were at that early day, we doubt if there was any more proper place, in which our brethren could congregate, or more durable work in which to engage than that to be found in the work of a Masonic Lodge.

January 4th, the Lodge was in session and on the 7th, Brother James Craig was elected on demit.

Sunday 11th, Brother Morehouse, Crafted.

12th, Brother Morse Raised.

13th, Brother Block Crafted. Many visitors were present, among whom was Bro. Samuel Smoker, of Philanthropic Lodge, No. 104, who afterwards became a member on demit. A petition was received from Mr. William Hempstead, an active business man and prominent citizen, whose generous liberality as a Mason, during the remainder of his life, only equaled by his love for the church with which he was connected.

Jan. 14th, Wm. Hempstead elected and initiated.

Jan. 16th, Bro. E. Black raised.

Jan. 17th, Bro. D. B. Morehouse raised.

Jan. 31st, work in E. A. degree, and Bro. Newhall joined on demit.

Sunday, Feb. 1st, Bro. Wm. Hempstead crafted.

Feb. 14th and 15th, Lodge met for work in E. A. and F. C. degrees. From this time Bro. James Craig became the Secretary, and the minutes show much care and are beautifully written. Bro. Craig afterwards settled in Wappelo, now Hanover, where he died honored by all who knew him.

March 14th and 21st, work in all of the degrees. Bro. J. H. Rountree raised.

March 22d, Bros. Wm. Hempstead and Peter Prim were examined in open Lodge as to their proficiency in the first two degrees of Masonry, which proved satisfactory. This is the first record we have of an examination. Bros. Hempstead and Prim were then raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason.

March 27th, Lodge met and arranged to inter Bro. F. S. Clopton with Masonic honors.

March 30th, work on E. A. degree.

April 18th, we find an order of $8.00 drawn in favor of Bro. Wm. Hempstead to pay for "music at funeral of Bro. F. S. Clopton," also the following good thing, which is a contract with the Tyler, defining his duties and emoluments: "The committee appointed to procure a Tyler, reported that Bro. James Harris would accept the station and perform the duties on the following terms: One dollar for each meeting, 50 cents for summoning the members in town to special meetings and serving process from the Lodge, the same fees as the sheriff is allowed for serving summons. His duties will be to tile the Lodge, keep the room in order, have wood and candles supplied at the expense of the Lodge, and when the clothing wants washing, he is to procure it done the Lodge to pay on his order for the same."

May 14th, Lodge met for general work.

June 11th, A. L. 5829, A. D. 1829.—At this communication of the Lodge, a resolution was adopted postponing the election of officers, and agreeing that all the officers should hold over. This is no doubt one of the main causes why the Lodge soon ceased to work, which it certainly did, no more records of its meetings being found. When the brethren of a Lodge arrive at the conclusion that they cannot make any change in their officers, they are then as certain to destroy their Lodge as a brother is to destroy his usefulness when he believes the Lodge cannot exist without his services. The next worst thing to re-electing the same officers year after year, is to have them "hold over," and the Masonic body which will do this must sooner or later surrender its charter. This resolution was offered:

"Resolved, That we return our charter to the G. M. or D. G. M. of Illinois, and apply to the G. L. of Missouri for a new one."

The further consideration of this question was postponed until the 18th inst.

The strictest search and most diligent enquiry fail to give any further light upon the doings of "Strangers' Union Lodge." Whether it died because of failure to hold the annual election; because the G. L. of Illinois had become defunct, or because of the storm of fanaticism which was then abroad in the land, we cannot tell. Perhaps it was all three combined. Suffice it to say, that Galena was not long without a Masonic Lodge. But we anticipate we have been thus full in our history of "Strangers' Union Lodge No. 14," the first Lodge in the "North West" that the brethren of Miners' Lodge should know to whom they were indebted for the early introduction of Masonry in this frontier town. To complete this record, we give the names of all borne upon the records as members, the names of all who were Initiated, Passed or Raised, together with the names and address of all visitors, so far as recorded:

GALENA LODGE U. D.

Our last chapter closes with the motion pending to surrender the Charter of "Strangers' Union Lodge No. 4." No later record can be found, and as the Grand Lodge of Illinois had ceased its existence, so did this and all other subordinate Lodges in the State.

The first record of Galena Lodge U. D. states that it is working under a Dispensation from the Grand Lodge of Missouri. The date of this record is July 17th, A. L. 5830:

"Officers and members present, Bro. Benjamin Mills, W. M.; Daniel Wann, S. W.; Moses Meeker, J. W. p. t.; Wm. Hempstead, S. D.; Samuel Smoker, Sec.

"Visitors.—Bros. Jas. A. Clark, Jas. Barns and Lewis M. Morse.

"Lodge opened in the third degree. Committee on by-laws reported, and report recommitted."

The next meeting is on the 22d, and is entirely taken up with business on by-laws. But one other meeting is recorded, and that on the 29th, when a petition for initiation is read and referred, and one for membership on Demit. The name of Bro. T. B. Farnsworth appears as J. D.

This is the brief history—all which can be found—of Galena Lodge U. D., working under Dispensation from the Grand Lodge of Missouri. For eight years and more the Great Lights of Masonry were closed except in the privacy of the family. The storm of Anti-Masonic fanaticism had swept over our fair land, and Masonry in Galena as elsewhere had bowed its head and waited in silence the return of reason. During all that period of Masonic darkness, the fraters of Strangers' Union Lodge never forgot the divine teachings so often inculcated around its altar, and no sooner did persecution cease than they hastened to take steps for the formation of a new Lodge.

FAR WEST LODGE U. D.

December 27th, A. L. 5838, pursuant to a public notice, the following named Master Masons met in the "Chamber of Commerce: "

Chas. Gear,	A. T. Crow,	T. B. Farnsworth,
H. H. Gear,	M. Faucette,	E. W. Turner,
S. McLean,	John Sherman,	John E. Smith,
R. Pattison and Jas. A. Clark.

These brethren proceeded to organize by electing the following officers:

Chas. Gear, W. M.	E. W. Turner, S. W.
S. McLean, J. W.	T. B. Farnsworth, Treas.
John E. Smith, Sec.	A. T. Crow, S. D.
H. H. Gear, J. D.	M. Faucette, Tyler.

Who were afterwards installed in form, Nov. 16th, 1839, in the stone buildings east side of Main street, opposite Diagonal, then used as a Court House, by P. M. William R. Smith, of Pennsylvania, whose eloquent oration on that pleasing occasion was ordered printed, and 500 copies were distributed among the friends of the craft.

A committee was appointed to draw up a petition to the G. L. of Missouri for a Dispensation, when the Lodge adjourned until the 29th. The petition was drawn up in due form and signed by all present, and before being forwarded, Bros. Daniel Wann, George M. Mitchell and Samuel Smoker's names were added thereto. One well known citizen and member being prevented from signing by reason of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That owing to the atheistical opinions as publicly expressed by A B, he is unworthy of being taken by the hand as a Mason."
Which was unanimously adopted.

This is sound Masonic law, and speaks well for the brethren forming the new Lodge, as it is one of the old charges which says: "A Mason is obliged by his tenure to obey the moral law; and if he rightly understands the Art, he will never be a stupid atheist, nor an irreligious libertine."

A committee was appointed to procure a room. Said committee reported January 5th, 1839, when the brothers subscribed five dollars each toward fitting up the Lodge.

January 19th, Bro. Daniel Wann, on behalf of the committee previously appointed to look up the "jewels of the old Lodge," reported their inability to find any but the S. and J. Wardens columns.

Meetings were held every two weeks until March 23d, when a Dispensation from the Grand Lodge of Missouri was received, read and accepted. Bro. E. L. Ogden was thanked for procuring said Dispensation, and admitted free of the regular fee. Bros. C. P. Burrows and T. C. Legate also became members. From this date commences the work of "Far West Lodge U. D." afterward No. 29, under the G. L. of Missouri.

Petitions were received from Wm. H. Hooper and A. J. Jackson.

April 6th Wm. H. Hooper and A. J. Jackson were elected and initiated. These gentlemen were well known to all Galenians. The first, since a member of Congress, and the last long the efficient clerk of the city, and but recently deceased. Bro. R. Thompson was admitted to membership. Regular work was continued without anything worthy of special mention until October 18th, when Bro. Geo. M. Mitchell returned from the G. L. of Missouri and presented the Lodge with its Charter as "Far West Lodge No. 29," by which it was hereafter to be known.

March 21st, A. L. 5840.—In answer to a communication from Bodley Lodge No. 1, of Quincy, Ill., relative to the formation of a new Grand Lodge, Bros. James L. James and Dennis Rockwell were appointed as proxies to represent Far West Lodge in the proposed convention to be held at Jacksonville the first Monday in April, and recommended that the G. L. be located at Springfield.

The Secretary, Bro. John E. Smith, under same date congratulates the Lodge on its prosperous condition as follows:

"Cash receipts,	-	-	-	$353 87.
-----------------	---	---	---	-----------

Paid out,	-	-	-	-	352 75.
-----------	---	---	---	---	---------

Leaving a balance of $1.12½.

Wonderful prosperity! Just like "John E." The report continues: "M. M's 27, E. A, 3." There had been nine initiations and six raisings, which was a large amount of work for a new Lodge, and the fact that they were out of debt was to their credit.

The years 1841 and 1842 were prosperous ones for Far West Lodge. Much interest seems to have been taken in the meetings, there being a large attendance of the brethren and visitors. A brief glance at the latter shows how universal is Masonry. We find at one meeting as visitors, Gen. George Cabbage, Iowa Territory, M. Sullivan, Benevolence Lodge No. 273, England, John S. Crawford, Ballabay Lodge No. 192, Ireland, Benjamin W. Reney, Harmony Lodge, Indiana, Elisha Dwelle, St. Andrew's Lodge, Boston, Mass., Benedict Solomon, Mechanics Lodge No. 153, N. Y.

May 16th, 1841.—The petition to the Grand Lodge of Missouri of "certain Master Masons for a Lodge to be located at Mineral Point, Wisconsin Territory," was recommended.

July 2d, 1842.—A Lodge of sorrow was held and resolutions adopted expressive of the feelings of the brethren on learning of the death of Bro. John Sherman in Missouri. Bro. G. C. Ehlenfreit Beaner, Maister of St. Andrew's Lodge No. 388, London, England, applied for and received relief July 16th. The death of Bro. Philip S. Dade, of Dubuque, Iowa Territory, was announced July 22d. Grand Visitor Alex. T. Douglass, of Missouri, lectured the Lodge for several days, the brethren being highly pleased as well as instructed.

August 22d.—The petition of several brother

Master Masons of Dubuque, Iowa Territory, to the G. L. of Missouri, for Dispensation, was presented, read, and on motion recommended, also a petition from divers brethren at Platteville, Wisconsin Territory, for Dispensation, was recommended to the G. L. of Missouri.

January 14, 1843. In the records of this month we find the Lodge attended the funeral of Bro. Samuel Smoker, to whose memory the Secretary, Bro. R. Pattison, pays this eloquent tribute: "Whilst the sacred charities of our Noble Order shall be dear to the Mason's heart, so long shall the recollection of our deceased brother's manly virtues and goodness, be present to the surviving brethren of Far West Lodge." Light be the earth upon his grave.

The records of 1843, '44 and '45, are very imperfect, here and there a pencil memorandum from which we have been able to rescue but a few of the many interesting facts connected with the history of this Lodge. We find that after meeting in the Court House for a year or two, they found comfortable quarters in the commodious stone house on the east side of the river owned by Bro. John P. DeZoya, where they met in regular communication during the years 1843-4.

Sunday, March 10th, 1844, the Lodge met to attend the funeral of Bro. John Turney, Dubuque Lodge No. 3, of Iowa, and many brethren from abroad participating. This was undoubtedly the largest Masonic funeral which ever took place in this city, Bro. Turney being universally respected and loved by all who knew him. The funeral took place from the Episcopal Church, the several Lodges of Odd Fellows participating.

July 17th, we find our brethren called upon again to attend a funeral, that of brother David Wells, which they did in large numbers.

October 3d, all the members were summoned and visitors requested to meet at Lodge room in Bro. John P. DeZoyz's. Object of meeting not stated. The following names appear here for the first time. We do not know if they were members of the Lodge or visitors, but give them a place in our record as having been recognized among the old Masons:

Stephen Hempstead,	Jas. Douglass,	R. J. Depue,
A. S. Buchanan,	Thos. E. Browne	S. E. Lewis,
Geo. L. Nightingale,	X. Wachtler,	P. G. Genes,
Wm. Bennett,	James Edwards,	Sol. Oliver,
	John Kresse.

Dec. 26th, 1844, the propriety of changing their allegiance from the G. L. of Missouri to that of Wisconsin was discussed, and a resolution adopted that "application be formally made to the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin for a Charter, and if granted that the name be that of Galena Lodge. Bro. M. Y. Johnson was elected on Demit, and made Secretary. Nothing of interest appears in the work until March 20th, 1846, when a Lodge of Sorrow convened, to attend the funeral of an old and active member, T. C. Legate.

March 21st, we find what would surprise us did we not know there was such a Lodge: "Resolved, That Bros. Morse and Welch, members of Galena Lodge, be admitted free." Which was carried.

The Secretary was then instructed to enquire of the "Grand Secretary of Illinois on what terms a Charter can be procured."

June 22d, 1846, M. W. G. M. Rev. Bro. Wm. F. Walker being present and in the East, the Lodge was opened in "ample form" when it was resolved that "we accept a Charter from the Grand Lodge of Illinois, and return our present Charter to the Grand Lodge of Missouri."

An invitation from Dubuque Lodge No. 3, to participate with them in the celebration of St. John's Day, was accepted, when the Lodge went into an election of officers, with the following result:

M. Y. Johnson, W. M.	W. C. Bostwick, S. W.
Daniel Wann, J. W.	M. P. Silverburgh, Treas.
D. H. Moss, Sec.

June 26th.—Officers installed and appointed:
 Osee Welch, S. D. J. E. Smith, J. D.
 P. J. Dennevan, Steward. Jos. Dopler, Steward.
 H. H. Gear, Tyler.

After a brief season spent in lecturing and general work, the M. W. G. M. closed the Lodge in due form until the 26th inst, when the officers elected and appointed were "duly installed and invested with their jewels and badge," the retiring Master, H. H. Gear, delivering a valedictory address, and the new Master, M. Y. Johnson, an inaugural, when Far West Lodge No. 29, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Missouri, closed, never to resume.

We deem it fitting to end this chapter with a list of the members and the work of No. 29 so far as completed, omitting the names of those who were only Initiated or Passed. It being well known that no one is recognized as entitled to any Masonic privileges until raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason.

In looking over a list of the membership of No. 29, we find those veteran Masonic workers, the Bros. Gear, one of whom, Capt. H. H. Gear, is at the present writing a member of all the Masonic bodies now organized in this city, Lodge, Chapter, Council and Commandery. Initiated in Massachusetts in the year 1815, he is now at the advanced age of 82 years, with a service in the brotherhood of 58 years, still an active, zealous member of the Craft, and bears his Knightly honors with becoming dignity and courtesy, while Charles Gear, the Worshipful Master of Strangers' Union Lodge No. 14 for one or more years, and the Master of Far West Lodge No. 29 for six consecutive years, full of Masonic honors, his life and conduct tried with the unerring square of the Grand Tyler, was admitted to the Grand Lodge above in the year 1861, his funeral being attended by prominent Masons from all the surrounding jurisdictions.

Of the other prominent members of the mother Lodge, Strangers' Union, Bro. James Harris died October 10th, 1829, universally loved and respected by all who knew him, leaving a family honored throughout the North West for their energy and integrity, one son having sought and found Masonic light and Companionship in our present Lodge and Chapter. The same may be said of Bro. Benson Hunt, whose son was long a member of our Lodge. Bros. Moses Meeker, Wm. Hempstead, and all the old members of that "First Lodge" have long since been called upon to give that pass which alone shall gain us admission into those blessed regions of light and life eternal, the Grand Lodge above.

Our researches are amply rewarded in finding the Dispensation granted by M. W. Wm. F. Walker, Grand Master, to the brethren of Far West Lodge. The dispensation bears date June 29th, 1846, and gives our brethren the same name, but changes the number to five, as follows:

"KNOW YE, Therefore, That I, William F. Walker, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, aforesaid, reposing special trust and confidence in the prudence and fidelity of our Brethren of Far West Lodge above named, have constituted and appointed, and by these presents do constitute and appoint them a regular Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons under our jurisdiction aforesaid, under the name, title and designation allotted to them by our Grand Lodge, to-wit: Far West No 5, hereby ratifying their choice of officers, whereby Brother M. Y. Johnson has been elected Master, Brother Wm. C. Bostwick, Senior Warden, and Brother Daniel Wann Junior Warden of this said Lodge "

We have also brought to light the charter bearing date October 8th, 1846, signed by M. W. Nelson D. Morse, G. M., and attested by Levi Lusk, Grand Secretary. This dispensation and charter, carrying with them all the members of No. 29, we shall not repeat their names, but will add those who join by Demit or are Raised in the new Far West Lodge No. 5, which through some cause to us unknown is chartered as No. 41.

Before pursuing our investigations into the work of Far West under its new Dispensation, we will briefly look for the reason of this change of Charter, and where this "Galena Lodge" mentioned in the closing records of No. 29 came from.

Situated so far from their Grand Lodge as the brethren of No. 29 were, and anxious to send a Representative without so great an expense as required to reach the Grand Lodge of Missouri, they cast about them, first, to sever their connection with Missouri; next, to find the Grand Lodge nearest to them.

Being in the centre of the lead region and having large interests in Wisconsin, the brethren made application to that Grand Lodge, forgetting the well settled principle of American jurisprudence which prohibits a Grand Lodge issuing a charter to a subordinate in a State where there is a Grand Lodge established. The Grand Lodge of Wisconsin or its G. M. seemed to have acted in ignorance of the same law until the prompt action of Grand Master Walker, of Illinois, and his visit to Galena brought about a correction of these irregularities.

We have seen that Grand Master Walker did grant his dispensation to the brethren of No. 29, and the following copy of a paper now before me attests that they properly severed their connection with the Grand Lodge of Missouri:

"This is to certify, That Far West Lodge No. 29 has paid up all dues and arrearages to the Grand Lodge, and agreeable to Resolution of said Grand Lodge of Missouri, (see proceedings October, 1845, page 26) having surrendered her charter, has consequently withdrawn from under the jurisdiction of said Grand Lodge.

"St. Louis, July 7th, 1846.

"FRED. L. BILLON, Grand Secretary."

Thinking the consent of the Grand Lodge of Missouri all that was necessary, No. 29 applied for and received a Dispensation from the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin, for a Lodge, to be known as "Galena;" hence, we find this Lodge at work January 2d, 1846, composed of the same members as No. 29, which did not cease to exist until June 26th, 1846.

The prompt action of Grand Master Walker in this matter, brought about the following action of the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin:

"Resolved, That Kavanaugh Lodge and Galena Lodge under Dispensation, be and they are hereby instructed to confer with the Grand Lodge of Illinois, and ask of that Grand Lodge its sanction to their uniting themselves with this Grand Lodge, and working under its jurisdiction as other Lodges in this Territory. And that all such correspondence be conducted upon true Masonic principles and fraternal love.

" MADISON, W. T., January 17th, 1846.

Attest:

" Wm. R. SMITH, Grand Secretary."

To this proper request, the members of Galena Lodge took exceptions, asserting their right to "petition the Grand Lodge of Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, or Wisconsin." Correct, but only the Grand Lodge of Illinois could legally grant the request.

The final result was the return of the Dispensation to the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin, and the acceptance of one from Illinois.

The records of Galena Lodge U. D. under Grand Lodge of Wisconsin, record but five meetings and give the names of the following well known Masons as officers and members. The first meeting bearing date January 2d, 1846, and the last March 20th, 1846.

Osee Welch, W. M.	J. Armour, S. W.
Daniel Wann, J. W.	M. P. Silverburgh, Treas.
D. H. T. Moss, Sec.	John E. Smith, S. D.
Wilmot Cady, J. D.	Robt Thomson, Steward.
P. J. Dunneran, Steward,	Joseph Doplar, Tyler.

And brothers—

M. Y. Johnson,	John P. DeZoya,	H. H. Gear,
A. D. Boyce,	Geo. M. Mitchell,	Philip Weber,
	A. J. Salame.

Bros. Daniel Wann, John E. Smith and D. H. T. Moss were appointed a committee to draft suitable By-Laws, which was done, and the result of their labors is before us in the form of a printed pamphlet of eight pages, neatly printed by Messrs H. A. and

H. W. Tenney, of this city. The By-Laws being in the usual form, we make no extracts.

Thus ends Galena Lodge U. D., and we resume our labors in Far West U. D. Nos. 5 and 41, the records of which commence with a copy of the Dispensation from G. M. Walker.

July 17th—Bro. Armour reports having settled all the indebtedness of No. 29, and having a balance of $20. On motion of Bro. Gear it was agreed "to accept the books, stationery and furniture of Galena Lodge U. D., and pay all indebtedness against the same." Communications are held almost every week, and work done in the several degrees.

Oct. 9th—Record shows that Lodge is now held in a building owned by Geo. Roddewig. A good resolution was adopted requiring "all Master Masons coming within the jurisdiction of this Lodge to report themselves as such, otherwise they will be deprived of the benefits and privileges of the same." This is good old Masonry, reaching away back of the old Anderson Constitution of 1721, and if strictly enforced at the present day, would be productive of much good.

While no Mason should neglect his family or business to attend his Lodge, yet all should remember there are duties to be performed by himself, as well as to be required of others. Obligations are not one sided, but mutual. If all were to absent themselves, there would be none to perform those "sacred duties" which constitute the crowning glory of the Masonic tie: "unsullied honor, unwearied industry in the cause of a brother, and universal benevolence."

Who that ever knew Bro. Geo. M. Mitchell will fail to picture him as he rises in this meeting and "apologizes to brothers Welch and Johnson?" Who can fail to picture him as with all the manner of a gentleman of the olden time, with all the grace of a courtier, or courtesy of a Red Cross Knight, he asked the brethren to "excuse him for speaking hastily?" Need we say that his excuse was "accepted by the Lodge and the brethren named?" The records say so, so must we. This meeting is full of good things, Just think of the following in the year of our Lord 1874, and yet the youngest of us date back thus far, only 1846!

"Resolved, That all notices from the W. M. addressed to members through the Post Office, be folded and sealed in letter form."

This was before the day of envelopes.

Dec. 28th, 1846, the following officers were elected:

John E. Smith, W. M.	James Armour, S. W.
Daniel Wann, J. W.	D. H. T. Moss, Treas.
W. Cady, Sec.

July 7th, 1847—Lodge of sorrow convened to bury Bro. Joseph Johnson, at which Bro. Chas. Gear, of "Olive Branch Lodge" W. T. presided, many visitors being present.

So far as the records show, the Lodge is doing well, and yet on the 30th day of August a motion is made to surrender the charter, and it was resolved by the "casting vote of the W. M. that a committee be appointed to assist the officers in settling up the affairs of the Lodge."

This, however, was the end of the matter for a season, and the Lodge went along with its work under the same officers until Dec. 27th, St. John's Day, when the following officers were installed:

Geo. W. Woodward, W. M.	A. D. Boyce, S. W.
W. Cady, J. W.	Joseph Harris, Treas.
John E. Smith, Sec.

The Lodge continued to work until Sept. 1st, 1848, after which time we find no records. What it died of, or how we are unable to tell. The following was its work:

MEMBERS ON DEMIT.

Geo. W. Woodward, Geo. P. Clark, Jas. Ormstead.

RAISED.

Edward Bloomer,	James M. Maughs,	O. D. Boyce,
W. M. Young,	Joseph Harris,	J. B. Coleman,
Alfred S. Gore,	John G. Weiser,	J. Stickle.

From September 1st, 1848, until February 9th, 1854, a period of nearly six years, we have no record that any Masonic body was at work in Galena. At the latter date we find the record of "Phoenix Lodge U. D.," which did some work for one year and a month, and then disappeared as suddenly as it appeared. The only record we can give is as follows:

E. R. Hooper, W. M.	L. J. Germain, S. W.
W. R. Rowley, J. W.	T. M. Wilcox, Treas.
J. E. Smith, Sec.	G. W. Woodward, S. D.
Jacob Davis, J. D.	A. Lovenstein, Tyler.

MEMBERS.

H. H. Gear, Geo. M. Mitchell, Geo. G. Gould,
 Geo. Houy, Nathan Meyer.
 Visitor, Jesse R. Grant.

Dispensation from Grand Lodge of Illinois read and accepted.

Though the Lodge held a number of meetings and did some work, yet it disappeared before a Charter was granted. Five are the total on whom the third degree was conferred: S. H. Helm, Isaac Shuster, Casper Klett, Max Levi and Hermann Hirschberg.

The visitors to this Lodge were numerous. "Uncle Jesse" being frequently present, as the older members of the present Lodge can attest. A great lover of Masonry, he embraced every opportunity to be present with the Craft.

Masonic darkness is once more upon our city, and no cheerful sound of the gavel is again heard until taken up by that Master Workman, Ely S. Parker, to whose skill as a wise and accomplished Craftsman we are indebted for the present permanent foundation upon which our Masonic bodies so firmly rest, and upon which we trust they will remain until time shall be no more.

Having thus followed the various Lodges which have struggled to maintain themselves, from "Strangers' Union" in 1826, to "Phoenix," in 1855, rejoicing with them in their prosperity, and sympathizing with them in their adversity, we have seen much to admire, amuse, and instruct in these old records. In the hope that our readers have patience enough left to follow us still further, we again take up the record in 1858.

MINERS' LODGE, NO. 273.

To the early members of Miners' Lodge we are indebted for the sure foundation upon which they build-ed our present Masonic edifice, and while it is our earnest desire to award to each his just measure of praise we must concede that to Bro. Ely S. Parker are we principally indebted.

As good citizens and "bright" Masons many of our early members were the equal of Bro. Parker, but, in the qualities which make up the presiding officer, the Worshipful Master, he who is to "rule and govern his Lodge with harmony and regularity;" he who can with tact, grace and dignity, awe into silence—not through fear, but love—by his presence alone. Bro. Parker had no equal. Of commanding presence, and great native dignity, he ruled with a firmness tempered only with fraternal love.

To Bro. P. M., J. C. Spare, we are indebted for the following notice issued to all Master Masons residing in Galena, and which is the oldest Masonic document relating to Miners' Lodge we have been able to find, MR. J. C. SPARE, Esq. :

"You are hereby requested to attend a meeting of the Masonic brethren residing in this city and vicinity, on Saturday, Feb. 20th, 1858, at 7½ o'clock, P. M., at the De Soto House."

(Signed)

JOHN E. SMITH,
ROB'T. FRAZER,
EDW'D W. TURNER,
GEO. G. GOULD, Sec.

The subsequent records fail to show that Bro. Spare was present when the Lodge was constituted, or the Corner Stone of the Custom House laid, and yet we know of our own knowledge that he was present on both occasions and assisted in the work.

Our first record bears date as follows :

Miners' Lodge, U. D., Galena, Ill., April 17, 1858.

MEMBERS PRESENT.

Ely S. Parker, W. M.	John E. Smith, S. W. P. T.
M. Y. Johnson, J. W.	M. P. Silverburgh, Treas.
Geo. G. Gould, Sec.	Samuel Frazer, S. D.
Geo. M. Mitchell, J. D.

VISITORS.

John E. Smith.	Samuel Snider.
W. R. Rowley.	S. H. Helm.

M. F. Burke.

Those recorded as visitors were resident Masons, who soon became members of the Lodge. The fact that a Lodge so recently constituted did not keep its records more full is an evidence of the difficulty surrounding the "Ancient Records" of the Craft.

In this case many members from Hazel Green, Wisconsin, Elizabeth, and Hanover, in this County, were present, to aid in constituting the Lodge ; and to rekindle the altar fires of Masonry in Galena. A vote of thanks was awarded them and yet not a name appears of record.

So it was of the special communication to lay the Corner Stone of the new Custom House, which was laid with Masonic Honors by Bro. Ely S. Parker, proxy for the M. W. G. M., many brethren from a distance being present and participating, and yet not a record is made of the event other than that at this first meeting : "It was voted to attend the laying of the Corner Stone of the new Custom House, in accordance with Masonic usage," which, as the files of the Galena Advertiser, now Gazette, inform us, was done on this same day, April 17th, 1858.

We cannot follow were we disposed so to do, the workings of Miners' Lodge, No. 273, as closely as we have the Lodges which preceded it. The record is too voluminous, the workmen plenty, and the material at hand to give us full employment in making history, rather than in writing it. The list of membership is a volume in itself which speaks more eloquently of the work done, than aught the writer can say. And as for the quality of the material it is before the craft for inspection. We do not hesitate to give our opinion and pronounce it good.

October 15th, 1858.—Miners' Lodge, 273, received its Charter and was duly consecrated. The Officers before mentioned were installed excepting that Bro. E. W. Turner being present assumed his duties as S. W., and Bro. Geo. G. Gould, having removed, Bro. M. F. Burke was made Secretary, Bro. Bond of Mt. Carroll, officiating.

February, 3rd, 1859.—Grand Lecturer Levi Lusk, present, also many visitors from Lena and other Lodges to meet Bro. Lusk.

June 24, 1859.—St. John the Baptist's day.—The brethren of Miners' Lodge, together with their guests from Hanover, Elizabeth, Shullsburg, Hazel Green, and Platteville assembled at the Court House, there formed a procession, preceded by Schreiner's Band, and marched to their new Hall on Bench Street, formerly known as Mitchell's Hall, which they had fitted up in a manner suitable to the purposes of the Craft. The Hall was dedicated in ample form, Bro. Ely S. Parker officiating. An address appropriate to the occasion was delivered by Bro. Parker, a copy of which was entered in the record book. At the conclusion of the address the large audience composed of ladies and gentlemen, together with the brethren from the surrounding country, were dismissed, the visiting brethren and invited guests being requested to meet at the De Soto, at 5 P. M., to partake of a banquet. Among the invited guests were Hon. E. B. Washburne, M. C., Hon. C. B. Denio, and other prominent citizens. After partaking liberally of the luxuries of the table, the toasts were announced, and appropriately responded to by Bros. Capt. H. H. Gear, Ely S. Parker, John S. Williams, of the Press, Dr. Fowler, of Hanover, Robinson, of Shullsburg, Hons. E. B. Washburne, C. B. Denio, J. C. Smith and others.

The procession, dedication and festival were each voted a success, after which Bro. Parker dismissed the company, each one retiring with the happy thought "that it were good to have been there."

December 27th, 1859.—St. John the Evangelist's day.—A grand Masonic and Citizen's dress ball was given at the De Soto House under the auspices of Miners' Lodge, which was largely attended by the Fraternity and the prominent citizens of Galena. The great feature of the occasion being the entrance of Bro. Ely S. Parker, clothed in the full uniform of a Knight Templar.

The usual routine of Lodge work continued until June 7th, 1861, two funerals having taken place—Bro. Bailey, a Canadian Mason, and the Tyler, Bro. S. H. Helm. At this communication a Lodge of sorrow was held in memory of Bro. U. S. Senator Stephen A. Douglass, who died in the city of Chicago, June 3d, 1861. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the great loss sustained by the whole country, north and south, east and west. The nation being on the verge of a deadly struggle for the preservation of the Union, the recent utterances of the great Senator were yet echoing through the land though his voice was hushed in death.

We make the following extract from the report:

Resolved, That the memory of Stephen A. Douglass will be cherished in the precious recollections of his brother Masons, and the bright light of his deeds will assure and encourage posterity to emulate his noble example, as a law giver, as a citizen, and as a Mason."

During the exciting years of the war the Lodge continued to work, though many times it seemed like a hopeless task to get a quorum, so many of the active members being in the military service of the Union. We call to mind of those who were absent, Bros. Gen. Ely S. Parker, afterwards Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Gen. John A. Rawlins, Secretary of War, Gens. John E. Smith, W. R. Rowley, and John C. Smith, Capt. Geo. W. Felt, and others.

To Bro. J. C. Spare, who succeeded Bro. Parker, in 1861, and Bro. Samuel Snider who for several years presided over the destinies of Miners' Lodge, together with the Officers and members who encouraged them by their regular presence and support, are we indebted for the continuance of work in the Lodge as well as in Jo Daviess Chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

No event of importance transpired until February, 1866, when the Lodge was called upon to administer the last sad rites, and give Masonic burial to an old and active Mason Bro. Geo. M. Mitchell, whose remains had been brought from Memphis, Tenn., to be buried in the city of his adoption. Upon the records of Miners' Lodge is found the following tribute to Bro. Mitchell:

"The members of this Lodge can only cherish, as they do and will, the memory of a man who was indeed a just and upright Mason."

The regular work of the Lodge continued, and the Lodge membership increased. Bro. Gen. John A. Rawlins died in the city of Washington, D. C., Sept. 6th, 1869, which is noted in the records, and the following entry made.

"His work was not done, yet his column is broken. The silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is rent in twain; the dust has returned to the earth as it was, and the Spirit to God who gave it."

During the year 1872, the question was seriously agitated of purchasing a lot and building a Masonic Home. Several pieces of land were examined as were many buildings, but all falling short of the wants of the Craft until attention was called to the buildings on Main, near Warren Street, owned by Messrs. Henry Corwith and Chas. H. Rogers, which, upon a thorough examination, were found suitable for Masonic purposes, and on July 18th, 1873, the W. M. and Wardens were constituted a Committee, with full power to purchase said buildings "on the best terms to be obtained."

Plans for alteration of the buildings so as to adapt them to Masonic purposes were then perfected, and at the regular communication Sept. 5th, 1873, the same Committee were directed "to proceed in fitting up the buildings for Masonic purposes, at an expense of not to exceed thirty-five hundred dollars."

It was not, however, until the 25th day of November, 1873, that the buildings were purchased, soon after which the work of demolishing and rebuilding commenced in earnest, and the work was vigorously pushed, under the direction of the Master assisted by Bros. W. R. Rowley, J. B. Young, and S. O. Stillman, until completed and dedicated June 15th, A. D. 1874, A. L. 5874. On this day the several Masonic bodies of the City, assisted by all the Lodges from the surrounding country, joined in a grand procession and proceed to lay the Corner Stone of the new Public Hall of the "Galena Social Turner Society," with Masonic ceremonies, W. M. J. C. Smith, as proxy of the Grand Master, officiating, assisted by Bros. J. C. Spare, D. G. M., M. Coleman, S. G. W., A. Reynolds, J. G. W., Geo. Broderick, G. Treas., Daniel LeBetter, G. Sec., B. Yerrington, G. S. D., A. J. Louchheim, G. J. D., A. H. Simpson and John Eiseman, Grand Stewards, and J. A. Berryman Grand Tyler.

Having brought our history of Masonry in Galena from the organization of the first Lodge in 1826, to the present time, 1874, a period of 49 years, we most graciously take our leave closing with a report of the "New Masonic Hall" and the "Dedication," as published in the "Galena Gazette."

DEDICATION OF THE NEW MASONIC TEMPLE—GRAND DOINGS.

In accordance with the announcement made through the columns of the Gazette, the elegant rooms of the Masonic Fraternity of this city were thrown open for the inspection of the public from 3 o'clock until 6, of Monday afternoon. The invitations extended to the friends of this society and the general public, to attend the reception, were gladly accepted, and there was one steady throng of ladies and gentlemen entering during the hours of inspection.

THE COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS, consisting of S. K. Milner, R. H. Fiddick, D. LeBetter, C. S. Merrick, J. R. Davidson, D. N. Corwith, Jesse Crooks, Richard Heller, S. Hunkins, H. H. Browning, and Daniel Stewart, were indefatigable in their exertions to answer all questions, show all the rooms, main Hall, Prelate Chamber, Armory, Guard rooms, Tyler's rooms, and Banquet rooms—even to the place where the famous "goat" is securely housed, and well fed, all of which being done in a true and courteous manner, pleasing to the visitor and honorable to the host. In the banquet rooms were found an unlimited supply of refreshments, not the coarse fare of the Knights of old, but more in keeping with our modern ideas of what the valiant Sir Knights deserved and had fairly won.

DEDICATION CEREMONIES.

Seven o'clock found the hall and its various rooms filled with the fair daughters of Galena, leaving but little space for their gallant attendants. Among the well known Masons from other places, we recall :

P. M. Capt. H. H. Gear, Iowa ; P. M. Dr. A. Campbell, Dunleith ; P. M's. Hon. J. D. Platt, Ill. H. Peckham, Warren ; P. M's. John Weber, George Marshall, Mark Thomas, Jr., and Henry Glessner, Elizabeth ; P. M's. Abe Reynolds, Thos. E. Moore, and J. G. Love, Hanover ; P. M. H. Tyrrell, Morseville ; P. M. Capt. J. P. Black, Apple River ; W. M. Capt. J. E. Hoover, Shullsburg ; W. M. Jos. Treganza, and P. M. Hon. Geo. Broderick, Hazel Green.

P. M.'s John C. Spare and M. Y. Johnson, of this city, were also present.

W. Bro. H. H. Gear, Master of Ceremonies, announced the following order of exercises, which were duly executed :

Voluntary on the organ.....Selected,
Prof. E. Kempler.
 Anthem....."Awake, Put on thy Strength,"
Galena Musical Union, under leadership of Hon. Bro. R. Seal.
 Prayer.....
Bro. Rev. E. H. Downing.
 Hymn....."How beautiful in Zion," Galena Musical Union.

CEREMONIES OF DEDICATION.

The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Illinols then entered in the following order:

Tyler with drawn sword, Bro. D. Stewart.
 Stewards with white rods, Bros. A. H. Simpson and John Eiseman.
 Grand Secretary, Bro. D. LeBetter.
 Grand Treasurer, W. Bro. J. E. Hoover.
 Bearer of Great Lights, P. M. A. Reynolds.
 Junior Grand Warden, carrying silver vessel with corn, P. M. J. D. Platt, Senior Grand Warden, carrying a silver vessel with wine, P. M. A. Campbell.
 Deputy Grand Master, carrying a golden vessel with oil, P. M. John C. Spare.
 The Lodge, carried by four Past Masters, Bros M. Y. Johnson, J. P. Black, J. G. Love and H. H. Peckham.
 Book of Constitutions, P. M. Geo. Marshall.
 Grand Master, R. W. Bro. John C. Smith, supported by Grand Junior Deacon, Bro. A. J. Louchheim and Grand Senior Deacon Bro. Jacob Fawcett.

During the entrance of the Grand Lodge, Prof. Kempter presided at the organ and performed the Grand March, Bro. Senior Warden, M. Coleman, welcomed the Grand Lodge, after which, Bro. S. O. Stillman, on behalf of his colleagues of the building committee presented the Grand Master with the keys to the various parts of the building. The Lodge was then uncovered and the Rev. Bro. E. H. Downing, made an appropriate consecration prayer. The Galena Musical Union then sang the "Most Excellent Master's Song" as follows:

All hail to the morning
 That bids us rejoice;
 The temple's completed,
 Exalt high each voice;
 The Cap-stone is finish'd,
 Our labor is o'er;
 The sound of the gavel
 Shall greet us no more.

To the Power Almighty, who ever has guided
 The tribes of old Israel, exalting their fame;
 To Him who hath govern'd our hearts undivided,
 Let's send forth our voices to praise his great name.

The Grand Junior Warden having presented the Grand Master with the vessel of corn which he poured upon the Lodge, after which the grand honors of masonry were given. The singing continued:

Companions assemble
 On this joyful day;
 (The Occasion is glorious,
 The key-stone to lay;
 Fulfill'd is the promise,
 By the Ancient of Days,
 To bring forth the cap stone
 With shouting and praise.

There is no more occasion for level or plumb line,
 For trowel or gavel, for compass or square;
 Our works are completed, the ark safely seated
 And we shall be greeted as workmen most rare.

After which, the Grand Senior Warden presented the vessel of wine, which was poured upon the Lodge and the grand honors were twice repeated, closing with the last verse

Almighty Jehovah !

Descend now and fill

This Lodge with thy glory,

Our hearts with good will !

Preside at our meetings,

Assist us to find

True pleasure in teaching

Good will to mankind.

Thy wisdom inspired the great institution

Thy strength shall support it till nature expire ;

And when the creation shall fall into ruin,

Its beauty shall rise through the midst of the fire.

The Deputy Grand Master presents the vessel of oil which is also poured upon the Lodge, and the grand honors are thrice repeated. The Grand Chaplain then closed with an invocation, after which, R. W. Bro. J. C. Smith, delivered the following address :

Ladies, Gentlemen, Brothers, Companions and Illustrious Sir Knights :—In accordance with a custom which has the sanction of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons from the earliest period, we have this evening, dedicated this substantial and elegant building to the principles of Free and Accepted Masons, and to the practice of those Masonic virtues which are at once the foundation of all that is great and good, and the safeguard of society, "Virtue, Faith, Hope, and Universal Benevolence," the crowning virtues of our ancient and honorable Order. Justly may the Mason point with pride to his proud lineage and trace his genealogy from the dim past, through whose countless ages the grand lessons of Free Masonry have been handed down, and as we have reason to believe will so continue until time shall be no more. The principles of Free Masonry are divine and co-eval with that time, when "the earth was without form, and void," and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters, and God said, let there be light and there was light." Such light as only the angels ever saw, and such light as every true Mason may hope to see when his earthly pilgrimage shall be ended, when he shall burst the bonds of mortality, have passed over the broad river of death ; and given the true word and signet, which shall gain him admission into that Holy of Holies above. Laying aside the traditions of centuries we may refer to the building of King Solomon's temple as a period in operative Masonry to which we, as speculative Masons, may point with pride, a period when, under the superior wisdom of our first most excellent Grand Master, Solomon, King of Israel, and his illustrious companions, King Hiram, of Tyre, and the "widow's son," Masonry assumed an organized form. In that great light of Masonry, (the Holy Bible), now before me, we are informed, that there were employed in the building of that magnificent temple, three Grand Masters, 3,600 Masters or Overseers of the work, 80,000 fellow crafts and 70,000 entered apprentices or bearers of burdens. They were so classified by King Solomon that during the entire period of building the temple, seven and a half years, there was no discord or strife known. When the temple was completed a day was set apart for its dedication, hence the custom of dedicating public buildings. The ceremonies of dedication of the magnificent temple erected to the glory of the one ever living and true God are so well known to all, that I need not dwell upon them. I may here remark and my attention has been particularly called to the charge made that we "know not the Savior," I will not enter into a theological discussion upon this point, else I may have to answer many other charges of what we do not know, or what we do not do. It is sufficient to say we are not a religious society founded upon a creed, we are an association of good moral men, and law abiding citizens. Our ceremonies are derived from those which obtained at the building of the first temple. It matters not whether we were constituted at that time, as our traditions teach. It is sufficient that our ceremonies are founded upon that event, and that our symbolic teachings are of the age we represent. We are neither bound nor trammelled by a narrow creed, upon our tessellated floor are found in one harmonious brotherhood, men of every clime and faith. Jewish in our birth, can we exclude the Jew because he believes the Savior has not yet come! No! We do not ask the particular creed, but do require that each and every one who enters the portal of our Lodge have a firm and lasting belief in the existence of the one true and ever living God.

In symbolic Masonry, we have the old dispensation. In Chivalric Masonry in the Commandries of Knights Templars and Knights of Malta, we are governed by the new dispensation. These Orders were founded since the birth, life and death of our Savior, and here, we have the additional requirement of a belief in the death and resurrection of our Lord and Savior. But, I need not dwell upon this subject, our laws and manuals, our professions and our actions are before you, judge what we are, and how worthy we may be of the high esteem in which we are held by all whose good opinion is worth the seeking.

I need not trace our genealogy from the building of the temple of Solomon or Zerubbabel; our history is to be found in the philosophical societies of ancient Greece and Rome, in the operative Masons of the Middle Ages, and thence down to the speculative Masons of our own day—Masons are not now engaged in the erection of those immense monuments of architecture which seem to defy time and are destined to endure forever, but engaged in the building of a spiritual temple, a house "not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The Masons of Galena have a record of which they may well be proud. A Lodge was formed here when this city was but a frontier post. The venerable brother and illustrious Sir Knight, Capt. H. H. Gear, now presiding, who has resided in this city from time immemorial; certainly, so long that "the memory of man runneth not to the contrary," informs me, that he found a lodge at work here in May, 1827, and knows it had been at work for one or two years previous. Records are in my possession of earlier meetings, and in them I find Bro. Gear recorded as a "visitor," at the time he speaks of. This was the "Stranger's Union Lodge," which was afterwards succeeded by "Far West," "Galena" and "Phoenix," from the ashes of which arose our own loved Miners' Lodge, No 273, and its three higher bodies. There are so many pleasant memories clustering about those old Lodges it would be interesting to speak of, but more eloquent than word of mine are the living witnesses who are present with us on this occasion. R. W. Bro. and Illustrious Sir Knight H. H. Gear, of Strangers' Union Lodge, who was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason, the Thursday preceding the full of the moon in the month of March, 1815, in "Mystic Lodge," Berkshire, Massachusetts, immediately after his discharge from the military service of the United States, having borne a gallant part in the war of 1812.

Bro. and Ill. Sir Knight Daniel Wann, and R. W. Bro. M. Y. Johnson, of Far West, and the succeeding Lodges; while of our own we have present of those who assisted in its organization:

R. W. Bro. John C. Spare, now officiating as D. G. M., and who succeeded to the Chair so long and acceptably filled by the Eminent Bro. whose portrait is to be seen in the west. Bro. Gen. Ely S. Parker, whose absence on this occasion the brethren deeply regret, as they do that of P. M.'s Samuel Snider and T. R. Bird.

Thanking you for the kind interest taken by the citizens, young and old, manifested on this occasion by the large attendance of the fair and brave of this city and surrounding country, I esteem it my pleasure to introduce to you my old friend and companion, R. W. Bro. John C. Spare P. M. of this Lodge.

At the close of the G. M.'s address, P. M. J. C. Spare was introduced, and spoke with much feeling of the early history of Miner's Lodge, and of his pleasant recollections regarding its members, many of whom are absent; Bro. Parker, the first Master, Bro. Snider the third (Bro. Spare being the second), and many others who were detained by business or distance, while not a few had gone to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns."

P. M.'s Hon. J. D. Platt, Dr. A. Campbell and Dr. J. G. Love, were each introduced, and gave their experience as to the beauties and benefits of Masonry.

The Hon. Judge Wm. Brown, of the Circuit Court, of this District, though not a Mason, was called out, and in sincere and impressive language, told the audience what he knew the Mason did not do, thereby refuting the slanders of many ignorant persons. The Judge commenced by saying, that it had been a "fixed purpose with him in life, never to speak unless he had something to say, and as this was one of the times when he had nothing to say, he must ask to be excused." We can assure the Judge that if last evening was "one of the times when he had nothing to say," that we, as well as every person present who were fortunate enough to hear him, will deem it a special and lasting favor if he will invite us to be present, when he has something to say.

P. M. Joseph J. P. Black was peculiarly happy in his remarks. His treatment of the aims and purposes of Free Masonry, its friendly and social tie; its grand charities, which, silent and unseen, like the dews of heaven, were carrying blessings to the needy throughout the world, was in exceeding good taste, and unanswerable, while his calm and cutting sarcasm of those who, through "mercenary motives, or willful ignorance," vainly assailed the granite walls of truth presented by Free Masonry, was no doubt prompted by the presence of a known maligner of the craft, one who had not come for the purpose of receiving light, or to reply by argument.

Bros. Daniel Wann, a Mason of 45 years, S. O. Stillman and others, were then introduced, adding interest to the occasion.

P. M. H. H. GEAR

moved the audience to tears with his eloquence, calling down the blessings of heaven upon all and as the divine love rested upon all those belonging to the house in which the Ark of the Covenant rested, so this gallant old soldier of 1812, veteran Mason of sixty years and valiant Templar prayed for that love to rest upon all entering the portals of Free Masonry. Looking upon the stalwart form of him over whose honored head the summers of eighty-four years have passed, his brethren of the craft were moved to tears, he who had graced the "East" and honored with his presence, every Lodge organized in this city from "Strangers' Union" in 1827, to "Miners" must soon pass "to that rest prepared from the foundation of the world."

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Rev. Bro. Joseph Crammer, Rev. A. C. Smith, Rev. J. F. Yates, Hon. James G. Souland, Hon. F. Stahl, Hon. Bro. H. S. Townsend, Hon. R. H. McClellan, Hon. Thomas J. Sheean, Mayor of the city, John Lorrain, N. Stahl and many others of our prominent and oldest citizens

While of the fair sex who graced the occasion with their presence, space will not permit us to do them justice.

The Galena Gazette, the family newspaper of the Northwest, without which, no Galenian can keep house was spoken of as the source of all news, and as the Editor was present and supposed to know a little of everything, he was loudly called for and introduced. Bro. J. B. Brown made a brief response, and closed by informing the audience that as he was an Editor, he spoke only through the columns of his paper, and would be happy to tell them all about it in the Gazette."

"Burn's Farewell" was then rendered by the Galena Musical Union, the brethren all singing.

The Benediction by the Rev. Bro. E. H. Downing, followed after which the audience lingered in seeming regret that the exercises were ended. All feeling that it were good to be there. The Musical Union sang "The Lord is King," with feeling effect.

The audience were then dismissed by W. M., J. C. Smith, who on behalf of the "Fraters" of Galena, thanked the Brethren of the Lodges of Jo Daviess County, Hazel Green and Shullsburg, large delegations from each of which were present, the ladies and gentlemen of Galena, but particularly Prof. E. Kempter, musical director, Bros. R. Seal, W. Ford and other gentlemen, and especially Mrs. Ford, Miss Bachelor and the ladies of the Galena Musical Union, expressing a hope that all might live long to grace the public receptions and installations of the Masonic Fraternity of Galena.

NEW MASONIC HALL—DESCRIPTION OF THE BUILDING.

The various Masonic bodies of Galena have purchased of Mr. Henry Corwith the two large and substantial brick buildings on Main Street, next north of the Bank of Galena, and have already commenced the work of fitting them up for an elegant Masonic Hall. The deed has been made and the entire amount of purchase money paid down, so that the Fraternity commence the improvements free from debt. The buildings are among the most substantially constructed edifices on Main Street. On the the Main Street front they are four stories high, and five stories on Bench, with an area of 70x36 feet. The two stores on Main Street will be rented for mercantile purposes, together with the room over each, which disposes of the two lower stories.

The third and fourth floors will be converted into one story, and here will be the handsome Masonic Hall which is to comprise an area of 45x30 feet—and 18 feet high. It will be handsomely finished in black and white walnut, with frescoed ceilings, and will be lighted with a double cone reflecting ventillator, with twenty-four gas jets. This is on the Main Street front. The three upper stories of the Bench Street front will be thrown into two stories. On the first floor of these two, will be the Tyler's room, 13x17, and the preparation room, armory and Prelate Chamber, which will be 17x22. These rooms are 11 feet high. Above these are two banquet halls, each 17x22. Alongside the main hall, and running parallel with it, lengthwise, is an area of 50x6 feet, which will be occupied as guard rooms, and Commandery closets for storing the uniforms and equipments of the Knights Templars, the doors having large pannels of French plate glass. All the Masonic apartments will be handsomely frescoed with appropriate Masonic designs.

The work will be in progress during this winter, but as good plastering work cannot be done at this season of the year, the improvements will not be completed till spring. It is believed that this will be the finest and most complete Masonic Hall west of Chicago. The plan was conceived, and the purchase of the buildings effected by Gen. J. C. Smith, who is the presiding officer in each of the four Masonic bodies.

CHARTER OF MINERS LODGE, No. 273.

"Sit Lux. Et. Lux, Fuit."

The Most Worshipful Ira A. W. Buck, Esq., Grand Master of the Most Honorable Society of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, of the State of Illinois :

To all and every—our Right Worshipful Living Brethren—SEND GREETING :

KNOW YE, That we, at the petition of our Right Honorable and beloved Brethren Ely S. Parker, E. W. Turner, M. Y. Johnson, Geo. M. Mitchell, Samuel Frazer, Geo. G. Gould, and M. P. Silverburgh, and several other Brethren residing in or near Galena, in the County of Jo Daviess and State of Illinois, do hereby constitute the said Brethren into a Regular Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, to be opened at the aforesaid Galena, by the name of Miners' Lodge, No. 273, and do further, at the said petition and of the great trust, and confidence reposed in the above named Brethren hereby appoint Ely S. Parker, Master, E. W. Turner, Senior Warden, and M. Y. Johnson, Junior Warden, for opening said Lodge, and for such time only as may be thought proper by the Brethren thereof. It being our will that our appointment shall in no wise effect any future election of Officers of that Lodge, but that the same shall be according to the Regulations of the Lodge, and consistent with the general Laws of the Society, contained in the Book of Constitutions.

And we do hereby require you, the said Ely S. Parker, to take special care that all and every, the said Brethren, are or have been regularly made Masons, and that they do perform and observe and keep all the Rules and Orders contained in the Book of Constitutions, and also such as may from time to time be transmitted to you from us. And further,

That you do from time to time cause to be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, an account of your proceedings in this Lodge, together with such Regulations as shall be made for the good government thereof, a copy of which, you are in no wise to omit laying before the Grand Lodge once in each year, together with a list of the members of the Lodge. That you annually pay into the Grand Treasury such sums as may be required of you towards the Grand Lodge fund. And moreover, We hereby join and require of you, the said Ely S. Parker, as soon as conveniently may be to send an account in writing of what shall be done by order of these presents.

Given at Springfield, under our hand and seal of Masonry this sixth day of October, A. L. 5858, A. D. 1858.

SEC. 2. Candidates applying for admission shall be men "under the tongue of good report;" of good moral character, and believers in God; twenty-one years of age; upright in body, with the senses and organs of men, and not deformed or dismembered; in the full possession of their moral and intellectual faculties; in the unrestrained enjoyment of civil and personal liberty, and this, too, by the birthright of inheritance, and not in consequence of release of themselves or immediate progenitors from hereditary bondage.

SEC. 3. Every petition for initiation in this Lodge shall be in writing, and shall be presented and read at a regular communication ; shall be accompanied with a fee of $5.00, and shall be referred to a committee of three members, who shall carefully examine into the character and standing of the petitioner, and make report thereof at the second regular communication hereafter.

SEC. 4. Upon the report of the committee, whether favorable or unfavorable, the Lodge shall, at the same or some subsequent regular communication, proceed to ballot.

SEC. 5. No ballot for any purpose shall be taken at any but a regular communication, unless by authority of a Dispensation from the Grand Master.

SEC. 6. In balloting for candidates for initiation or for membership, all members of the Lodge present shall vote,—for according to an old regulation, “no man can be entered a brother in any particular Lodge, or admitted to be a member thereof, without the unanimous consent of all the members of that Lodge then present when the candidate is proposed;” nor shall a member be excused from the performance of this important duty, except by the unanimous consent of all the members present. No Mason shall be required by the Master or Lodge to give his reasons for the vote which he has deposited.

SEC. 7. After the ballot has been taken and duly examined, first, by the Wardens and finally by the Master, the result shall be declared by the Master. In case of a negative vote, the Master may order a second, and even a third passing of the ballot, to avoid the possibility of a mistake; but when declared as aforesaid, shall in all cases be final and cannot be set aside.

SEC. 8. It shall not be in order to move the reconsideration of a ballot which has been declared on the petition of a candidate for initiation or membership, neither shall the Master entertain any such motion at any time.

SEC. 9. No candidate shall receive more than one degree on the same day, nor shall a higher degree be conferred on any brother at a less interval than four weeks from his receiving a previous degree without special Dispensation from the Grand Master; nor unless he has passed a satisfactory examination in open Lodge on the degree or degrees taken.

SEC. 10. All Masons, raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason, and all Master Masons admitted as members, after signing the By-Laws, shall be entitled to all the rights of membership in this Lodge.

ARTICLE VII.

FEES AND DUES.

SEC. 1. The fees for the Degrees conferred in this Lodge shall be as follows:

For that of Entered Apprentice,	-	-	-	$15.00
For that of Fellow Craft,	-	-	-	10.00
For that of Master Mason,	-	-	-	10.00

And in no case shall the three degrees be conferred for a less sum than $35.00, and the fees shall in all cases be received before the candidate shall be initiated. A Fellow Craft having received the second degree in any other Lodge, shall pay $5.00 in addition to the regular fee for raising, and the same shall accompany his petition.

SEC. 2. In all cases where an application for initiation is rejected, the money shall be returned, with information of the rejection; which information shall in no case be communicated by any member of this Lodge, or any visitor who may be present, to one not a Mason, under the penalty, in the former case, of exclusion from the Lodge; in the latter, of never again being admitted to visit. The same shall apply to the disclosure of any of the proceedings of the Lodge. The Worshipful Master shall frequently cause this section to be read in open Lodge.

Sec. 3. Every member shall pay $3.00 per annum in advance as Lodge dues, and if not paid within the year, such member shall not be entitled to vote at the annual election, and shall be ineligible to office.

The year shall commence on the first day of January. Each member who is one year in arrears for dues, and still neglects to pay, after due notice from the Secretary, may be indefinitely suspended, unless from indigence, or other good reason, by a unanimous vote of the Lodge he shall be exempted from payment.

ARTICLE VIII.

DEMITTS.

SEC. 1. Master Masons, members in good standing, free from charges and not in arrears for dues, shall be entitled to Demits for one only of the following reasons, (upon the payment of fees :)

First, In case of residence without the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Illinois.

Second, In case of a desire to join another Lodge in the same city or town, or a Lodge nearer to the residence of the applicant than this Lodge.

Third, In case of a desire to assist in the formation of a new Lodge.

SEC. 2. Members of the Lodge in good standing shall be entitled to a Lodge diploma on paying to the Secretary the cost of the same, and the fee of one dollar.

All applications for Demits shall be made in writing, signed by the applicant, be presented to the Lodge at a stated communication. Shall be read in open lodge, and lie over until the next or some subsequent stated meeting, when if the applicant's dues are paid, and there are no charges against him, a Demit may be granted by a vote of the majority of the members present.

ARTICLE IX.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. The regular communications of this Lodge shall be held on the First and Third Fridays of each month. The hours for working shall be from 7½ o'clock until 10 o'clock in the evening.

SEC. 2. The Lodge shall in all cases proceed to open within fifteen minutes after the stated time for assembling if a sufficient number of Masons be present.

ARTICLE X.

DISCIPLINE AND JURISDICTION.

SEC. 1. This Lodge has full power and authority to exercise penal jurisdiction over all Masons, unaffiliated, or affiliated, as well as members of this Lodge, within its jurisdiction, for violation of moral and Masonic law.

SEC. 2. All Masons are bound by their tenure to obey both the moral and Masonic law, for every Mason should live honestly, injure nobody, and render to every one their just due; should conform to the rules specified in the Ancient Charges, and follow the moral and Masonic precepts laid down in our time-honored ritual forms and ceremonies; hence, profanity, impiety, neglect of social and domestic duties, murder, cruelty, adultery, dishonesty, perjury, malevolence, falsehood, covetousness, gambling, drunkenness, and the numerous other vices injuriously affecting the relations of man to God, his neighbor and himself; unseemingly or irreverent conduct in the Lodge; private piques and quarrels, brought into the Lodge; imprudent conversation in relation to Masonry in the presence of uninitiated strangers; withholding relief when applied for by a worthy brother; wrangling, quarreling, backbiting and slander; improper revelations; undue solicitations for candidates; angry and over-zealous arguments in favor of Masonry with its enemies; all acts tending to impair the unsullied purity of the order; want of reverence for, and obedience to Masonic superiors; expressing contemptuous opinions of the original rulers and patrons of Masonry, or of the institution itself; countenancing imposters; holding Masonic intercourse with clandestine Masons; or visiting irregular lodges;—are, all and each, violations of moral and Masonic law, and are, therefore, Masonic crimes, for which the perpetrators shall be amenable to Masonic punishment.

SEC. 3. The Masonic punishment which may and shall be inflicted by this Lodge for the moral and Masonic crimes thus specified, shall be in either one of the following grades, to-wit:

- 1st. Reprimand.
- 2d. Definite Suspension.
- 3d. Indefinite suspension,
- 4th. Expulsion from the Lodge, and consequently expulsion from all the rights and privileges of Masonry.

SEC. 4. All trials in this Lodge shall be as follows:

1. A regular charge, in writing, specifying the nature of the offense, and signed by the accuser, shall be delivered to the Secretary, who shall read it at the next regular communication, at which time the Worshipful Master shall appoint the time for trial, of which it shall be the duty of the Secretary to give due and timely notice to the accused, who shall be entitled to a copy of the charges, and to ample time and opportunity to prepare his defense.

2. All trials shall be in the Lodge of the highest degree to which the accused has attained, in which the examination of witnesses shall take place in the presence of both the accused and accuser, who shall have the right to be present at all examinations of witnesses, in or out of the Lodge, and to propose such relevant questions as they may desire.

3. After the trial is concluded the accused and the accuser shall be requested to retire, and in case the trial has been in a Lodge of Entered Apprentices or Fellow Crafts, the Lodge shall then be opened on the third degree, for no decision shall be made for or against a brother, after regular trial, except in a Master Mason's Lodge, in which the question of "Guilty" or "Not Guilty," shall be put by the Master, in which all the members present shall be required to vote, and of which two-thirds shall be in the affirmative, or the accused shall be declared "Not Guilty."

4. If the verdict is "Guilty" the Master or presiding Officer shall put the question as to the amount of punishment, beginning with the highest and ending with the lowest Masonic punishment herein provided. The vote on the nature of the punishment may be taken by a show of hands, and decided by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

5. Should the accused member believe that the proceedings had against him have been informal or irregular, whereby he has suffered, he can carry the matter up before the Grand Lodge, by appeal, by leaving a notice of appeal with the Secretary of the Lodge, and also with the Grand Secretary, one month before the next annual communication of the Grand Lodge.

6. If the residence of the accused is not known, or, if upon due summons, he refuses or neglects to attend, this Lodge may proceed to trial without his presence.

7. The testimony of Masons shall be taken in Lodge or in Committee; that of competent persons, not Masons, by a Committee on oath, administered by a competent legal officer, and may be by affidavit.

8. A member cannot be suspended for non-payment of dues without written notice and a fair trial.

9. The witnesses in all Masonic trials, whether Masons or not, shall be persons who have their reason, and such religious belief as to feel the obligations of an oath; who have not been convicted of any infamous crime, and who are not influenced by interest or malevolence.

ARTICLE XI.

DUTIES OF BRETHREN.

It is particularly enjoined by this Lodge that all its members treat each other with kindness and decorum, avoiding all slander, malice and unjust resentment, and talking disrespectfully of a brother's person or performance, by which the character of a brother may be injured, his feelings wounded, or the most excellent tenets of our Order, [Friendship, Moralty and Brotherly Love,] be violated or in any degree intercepted in their exercise; nor must they suffer any to spread unjust reproaches or calumnies against a brother behind his back, nor to injure him in his fortune, reputation or character; but they shall defend such brother, and give him notice of any danger or injury where-with he may be threatened, to enable him to escape the same, as far as is consistent with honor, prudence, and the safety of Religion, Morality and the State, but no further. Hypocrisy and deceit should be unknown among Masons; sincerity and plain dealing should distinguish them, and heart and tongue join in promoting each other's welfare.

ARTICLE XII.

AMENDMENTS.

No part of these By-Laws shall be repealed, altered, annulled, suspended or amended, unless a proposition in writing shall have been presented at a stated meeting, at least four weeks previous to its consideration, when, if two-thirds of the members present vote in favor of the proposal it shall be adopted.

ARTICLE XIII.

RULES OF ORDER.

RULE 1. When the W. M. takes the chair, the brethren shall retire to their respective places, and shall observe profound silence.

RULE 2. ORDER OF BUSINESS:

1. Reading of the Minutes.
2. Reading and referring of Petitions.
3. Reports of Committees.
4. Balloting.

5. Work.

6. Unfinished Business.

6. New Business.

RULE 3. No brother will be permitted to leave his seat, or move from one part of the room to another, except such as may be required to do so in the performance of their duty, without permission from the Worshipful Master.

RULE 4. Every brother shall stand up when he speaks, and shall address the Worshipful Master in a respectful and Masonic manner; he shall speak but once upon any subject, unless it be merely to explain, until every member present who chooses to avail himself of the privilege has spoken.

RULE 5. On all motions and debates, parliamentary rules shall be adhered to, as far as the regulations of the Grand Lodge of Illinois and the ancient usages of Masonry will permit.

RULE 6. The Worshipful Master shall rule and govern with order and regularity all the communications of the Lodge.

RULE 7. When a question is put every member shall vote thereon, unless for special reasons he shall be excused by the Lodge, according to the By-Laws.

RULE 8. In order to preserve on all occasions the dignity of the Oriental Chair, all debates shall cease and strict silence be observed when the Worshipful Master rises.

RULE 9. The Worshipful Master shall cause the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Lodge, together with these By-Laws, to be frequently read in this Lodge, that none may pretend ignorance of the excellent precepts they enjoin.

I CONCERNING GOD AND RELIGION.

A Mason is obliged by his tenure to obey the moral law ; and if he rightly understands the Art he will never be a stupid atheist, nor an irreligious libertine. But though in ancient times Masons were charged in every country to be of the religion of that country or nation, whatever it was; yet it is now thought more expedient only to oblige them to that religion in which all men agree, leaving their particular opinions to themselves; that is, to be good men and true, or men of honor and honesty, by whatever denominations or persuasions they may be distinguished, whereby Masonry becomes the centre of union, and the means of conciliating true friendship among persons that must have remained at a perpetual distance.

II OF THE CIVIL MAGISTRATE, SUPREME AND SUBORDINATE.

A Mason is a peaceable subject to the civil powers wherever he resides or works, and is never to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against the peace and welfare of the nation, nor to behave himself undutifully to inferior Magistrates; for as Masonry hath been always injured by war, bloodsheed and confusion, so ancient Kings and Princes have been much disposed to encourage the Craftsmen, because of their peaceableness and loyalty, whereby they particularly answered the cavils of their adversaries, and promoted the honor of the fraternity, who ever flourished in times of peace. So that if a Brother should be a rebel against the State, he is not to be countenanced in his rebellion, however he may be pitied as an unhappy man, and if convicted of no other crime, though the loyal brotherhood must and ought to disown his rebellion, and give no umbrage or ground of political jealousy to the government for the time being, they cannot expel him from the Lodge, and his relation to it remains indefeasible.

III OF LODGES

A Lodge is a place where Masons assemble and work; hence that assembly, or duly organized society of Masons, is called a Lodge; and every Brother ought to belong to one, and be subject to its By-Laws, and general regulations. It is either particular or general, and will be best understood by attending it, and by the regulations of the General or Grand Lodge hereunto annexed. In ancient times, no Master or Fellow could be absent from it, especially when warned to appear at it, without incurring a severe censure, until it appeared to the Master and Wardens that necessity hindered him.

The persons admitted members of a Lodge, must be good and true men—free born, and of mature and discreet age. No bond-men, no women, no immoral or scandalous men, but of good report

IV. OF MASTERS, WARDENS, FELLOWS AND APPRENTICES.

All preferment among Masons is grounded upon real worth, and personal merit only; that so the Lords may be well served—the Brethren not put to shame, nor the Royal Craft despised; therefore, no Master or Warden is chosen by seniority, but for his merit.

It is impossible to describe these things in writing, and every brother must attend in his place, and learn them in a way peculiar to this fraternity. Only candidates may know that no Master should take an Apprentice, unless he have sufficient employment for him, and unless he be a perfect youth, having no maim or defect in his body, that may render him incapable of learning the Art—of serving his Master's Lord, and of being made a Brother and then a Fellow Craft in due time, even after he has served such a term of years as the custom of the country directs; and that he should be descended of honest parents that so, when otherwise qualified, he may arrive to the honor of being the Warden, and then the Master of the Lodge, the Grand Warden, and at length the Grand Master of all the Lodges, according to his merit.

No Brother can be a Warden until he has passed the part of a Fellow Craft; nor a Master until he has acted as a Warden; nor Grand Warden until he has been Master of a Lodge; nor Grand Master unless he has been a Fellow Craft before his election, who is also to be nobly born, or a gentleman of the best fashion, or some eminent scholar, or some curious architect, or other artist, descended of honest parents and who is of singular great merit in the opinion of the Lodges. And for the better and easier and more honorable discharge of his office, the Grand Master has a power to choose his own Deputy Grand Master who must be then, or must have been formerly, the Master of a particular Lodge, and has the privilege of acting whatever the Grand Master, his principal should act, unless the said principal be present, or interpose his authority by a letter.

These rulers and governors, supreme and subordinate, of the ancient Lodge, are to be obeyed in their respective stations by all the brethren, according to the old charges and regulations, with all humility, reverence, love and alacrity.

V OF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE CRAFT IN WORKING.

All Masons shall work honestly on working days, that they may live creditably on holy days, and the time appointed by the law of the land or confirmed by custom, shall be observed.

The most expert of the Fellow Craftsmen shall be chosen or appointed the Master or Overseer of the Lord's work, who is to be called Master by those that work under him. The Craftsmen are to avoid all ill language, and to call each other by no disobliging name but Brother or Fellow, and to behave themselves courteously within and without the Lodge.

The Master, knowing himself to be able of cunning shall undertake the Lord's work as reasonably as possible, and truly dispend his goods as if they were his own; nor to give more wages to any Brother or Apprentice, than he really may deserve.

Both the Master and the Masons receiving their wages justly, shall be faithful to the Lord, and honestly finish their work, whether task or journey; nor put the work to task that hath been accustomed to journey.

None shall discover envy at the prosperity of a Brother, or supplant him, or put him out of his work, if he is capable to finish the same; for no man can finish another's work so much to the Lord's profit, unless he be thoroughly acquainted with the designs and draughts of him that began it. When a Fellow Craftsman is chosen Warden of the work, under the Master, he shall be true both to Master and Fellows, shall carefully oversee the work in the Masters absence, to the Lords profit, and his brethren shall obey him.

All Masons employed, shall receive their wages, without murmuring or mutiny, and not desert the master till the work is finished.

A younger Brother shall be instructed in working to prevent spoiling the materials for want of judgment, and for increasing and continuing of brotherly love.

All the tools used in working shall be approved by the Grand Lodge.

No laborer shall be employed in the proper work of Masonry: nor shall Free Masons work with those that are not free, without an urgent necessity; nor shall they teach laborers and unaccepted Masons as they should teach a Brother or Fellow.

VI. OF BEHAVIOR, VIZ.

1. In the Lodge, while constituted, you are not to hold private Committees, or separate conversation, without leave from the Master, nor to talk of anything impertinent or unseemly, nor interrupt the Master or Wardens, or any Brother speaking to the Master; nor behave yourself ludicrously or jestingly while the Lodge is engaged in what is serious and solemn, nor use any unbecoming language upon any pretence whatsoever, but to pay due reverence to your Master, Wardens, and Fellows, and put them to worship.

If any complaint be brought, the Brother found guilty, shall stand to the award and determination of the Lodge, who are the proper and competent judges of all such controversies, (unless you carry it by appeal to the Grand Lodge,) and to whom they ought to be referred, unless a Lord's work be hindered the meanwhile, in which case a particular reference may be made; but you must never go to law about what concerneth Masonry, without an absolute necessity apparent to the Lodge.

2 Behavior after the Lodge is over, and the brethren not gone.—You may enjoy yourselves with innocent mirth, treating one another according to ability; but avoiding all excess, or forcing any Brother to eat or drink beyond his inclination, or hindering him from going when his occasions call him, or doing or saying anything offensive, or that may forbid an easy and free conversation, for that would blast our harmony and defeat our laudable purposes. Therefore, no private piques or quarrels must be brought within the door of the Lodge, far less any quarrels about religion or nations, or State policy. We being only, as Masons, of the Catholic religion above mentioned; we are also, of all nations, tongues, kindreds, and languages, and are resolved against all politics, as what never yet conduced to the welfare of the Lodge, nor ever will. This charge has been always strictly enjoined and observed; but especially, since the reformation in Britain, or the dissent and secession of these nations from the communion of Rome.

3. Behavior when brethren meet without strangers, but not in a Lodge formed—You are to salute one another in a courteous manner, as you will be instructed—calling each other Brother; freely giving mutual instruction, as shall be thought expedient, without being overseen or overheard, and without encroaching upon each other, or derogating from that respect which is due to any Brother were he not a Mason; for though all Masons are as brethren upon the same level, yet Masonry takes no honor from a man that he had before; nay, rather it adds to his honor, especially if he has deserved well of the Brotherhood, who must give honor to whom it is due, and avoid ill manners.

4. Behavior in presence of strangers not Masons.—You shall be cautious in your words and car riage, that the most penetrating stranger shall not be able to discover or find out what is not proper to be intimated; and sometimes you shall divert a discourse, and manage it prudently, for the honor of the worshipful fraternity.

5. Behavior at home, and in your neighborhood.—You are to act as becomes a moral and wise man; particularly, not to let your family, friends, and neighbors, know the concerns of the Lodge, &c., but wisely to consult your own honor, and that of the ancient brotherhood, for reasons not to be mentioned here. You must also consult your health, by not continuing together too late, or too long from home after Lodge hours are past, and by avoiding of gluttony and drunkenness, that your family be not neglected or injured, nor you disabled from working.

6 Behavior towards a strange Brother.—You are cautiously to examine him in such a method as prudence shall direct you, that you may not be imposed upon by an ignorant, false pretender, whom you are to reject with contempt and derision, and beware of giving him any hints of knowledge; but if you discover him to be a true and genuine Brother, you are to respect him accordingly; and if he is in want you must relieve him if you can, or else direct him how he may be relieved; you must employ him some days, or else recommend him to be employed. But you are not charged to do beyond your ability—only to prefer a poor Brother, that is a good man and true before any other poor people in the same circumstance.

Finally, all these charges you are to observe, and also those that shall be communicated to you in another way—cultivating brotherly love, the foundation and cap-stone—the cement and glory of this ancient fraternity, avoiding all wrangling and quarreling—all slander and backbiting, not permitting others to slander any honest Brother, but defending his character, and doing him all good offices, as far as is consistent with your honor and safety, and no farther; and if any of them do you injury, you must apply to your own or his Lodge, and from thence you may appear to the Grand Lodge at the Quarterly Communication, and from thence to the annual Grand Lodge, as has been the ancient laudable conduct of our forefathers in every nation—never taking a legal course but when the case cannot be otherwise decided, and patiently listening to the honest and friendly advice of Master and Fellows, when they would prevent your going to law with strangers, or would excite you to put a speedy period to all law-suits, that so you may mind the affairs of Masonry with more alacrity and success. But with respect to Brothers or Fellows at law, the Master and Brethren should kindly offer their mediation, which ought to be thankfully submitted to by the contending Brethren, and if that submission is impracticable, they must, however, carry on their process, or law-suit, without wrath and rancour, (not in the common way,) saying or doing nothing which may hinder brotherly love, and good offices to be renewed and continued, that all may see the benign influence of Masonry, as all true Masons have done from the beginning of the world, and will do to the end of time. AMEN.

SO MOTE IT BE.

JO DAVIESS CHAPTER, NO. 51.

JoDavieSS Chapter, No. 51, of Royal Arch Masons, was organized under Dispensation, June 9th A. D., 1859, A. S. 2389., by Deputy Grand High Priest, Comp. Wm. Mitchell.

Present, Companions Rev. E. M. Boring, of Chicago, Capt. H. H. Gear, Ely S. Parker, Geo. Thompson and M. D. Chamberlain, of Freeport, J. M. Shermerhorn, Lena, Daniel Wann, Wm. Spaulding Wm. Bulger, Dr. J. A. Scroggs, and Geo. M. Mitchell, of Galena.

After the Chapter was duly constituted, petitions were received from a number of Master Masons, acted upon and elected. From June 9th. 1859, to the present time the work of JoDavieSS Chapter has been continuous, but as its history would be but a repetition of that of Miner's Lodge, we content ourselves with the By-Laws and a history of its work as shown in the list of Officers who have been called upon to preside over its destinies, and the large membership which has found companionship around its altar.

COPY OF CHARTER
OF
JO DAVIESS CHAPTER.

THE MOST EXCELLENT GRAND ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER OF ILLINOIS.

To all whom it may concern, Send Greeting.—KNOW YE, "That we, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Illinois, do hereby authorize and empower our trusty and well beloved Companions, Ely S. Parker, High Priest, Daniel Wann, King, George M. Mitchell, Scribe, and others, their Companions and Associates, to open and hold a Royal Arch Chapter, at the City of Galena, by the name of Jo Daviess Chapter, No. 51, and therein to confer the several degrees of Mark Master, Past Master, Most Excellent Master, and Royal Arch, according to the ancient customs and usages of the craft, and not otherwise."

"And we do further authorize and empower our said trusty and well beloved Companions to install their successors in office, to whom they shall deliver this Warrant of Constitution, and invest them with all their powers and dignities as such and they in like manner their successors in office, during the continuance of the said Royal Arch Chapter Forever.

Provided always, That the said above named companions, and their successors do pay and cause to be paid, due respect and obedience to the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Illinois, aforesaid, and to the Edicts, Rules and Regulations thereof; Otherwise this Warrant of Constitution to be void, and of no effect.

Given under the hands of our Grand Officers, and Seal of our Grand Chapter, at Springfield this 30th day of September, A. D., 1859, A. L., 5859. Y. D. 2389.

A. G. ELLWOOD, Grand High Priest
WM. WALLACE MITCHELL, Deputy High Priest.
A. W. BLAKESLEY, Grand King.
A. W. MORRIS, Grand Scribe.

Attest,

HARMAN G. REYNOLDS,
Grand Secretary.

The Stated Convocations of this Chapter, shall be held on the Second and Fourth Tuesdays of each month at 7½ o'clock, P. M.

ARTICLE III.

ANNUAL CONVOCATIONS.

The Annual Convocations for the election of officers shall be held on the regular convocation next before St John's day in December, of each year.

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTIVE OFFICERS.

The M. E. High Priest,
M. E. King,
M. E. Scribe,
Secretary,
Treasurer,
Captain of Host.

Principal Sojourner, and Royal Arch Captain, shall be elected by ballot at the annual convocation of each year.

ARTICLE V.

APPOINTED OFFICERS.

Previous to the installation the M. E. High Priest shall appoint a

Grand Master of the 1st veil,

Grand Master of the 2d veil,

Grand Master of the 3d veil, and a Tyler.

ARTICLE VI.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The Officers of this Chapter shall be installed as soon after their election as practicable, but on or before Saint John's day, Dec. 27th of each year.

ARTICLE VII.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The duties of the several Officers shall be such as the Constitution and Masonic traditions have settled, as well as the By-Laws of this Chapter, and the Laws and Edicts of the Grand Chapter of Illinois and the General Grand Chapter of the United States.

SEC. 2. It is incumbent on the High Priest of this Chapter, as appertaining to his office, duty and dignity, to see that the By-Laws of this Chapter, as well as the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter of the U. S. and the Regulations of the Grand Chapter of Illinois, be duly observed; that all the subordinate officers perform the duties of their respective stations faithfully, and are examples of diligence and industry to their Companions; that true and exact records be kept of all the proceedings of the Chapter by the Secretary; that the Treasurer keep and render exact and just accounts of all moneys belonging to the Chapter; that regular returns be made by the Secretary annually to the Grand Chapter, of the admission of all candidates or members; that the annual dues to the Grand Chapter be regularly and punctually paid. The Charter of the Chapter is committed to his special care and charge. He has the right and authority of calling his Chapter at pleasure, upon any emergency or occurrence which in his judgment may require their meeting, and he is to fill the chair when present.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep a correct record of all the proceedings of this Chapter proper to be written. Keep accounts with all its members, make reports to the Grand Chapter when required, and make report to this Chapter at each annual convocation of its membership and of all moneys received and paid out by him during the current year together with the amounts due by the Companions, and for such duties the Secretary shall receive one dollar per night and be exempt from yearly dues.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer before entering upon the duties of his Office shall give a bond for the faithful performace and discharge of his duty, to be approved by the first three officers of the Chapter, and it shall be his duty, to make report at each annual convocation of the moneys received and paid out by him.

SEC. 5. The Tyler shall take charge of the Hall, Rooms and Furniture of the Chapter, and keep them in proper order for the transaction of business and comfort of the Companions. He shall attend all Convocations of the Chapter, and serve all summons or other notices, and for such duties he shall be exempt from yearly dues and receive one dollar per night.

SEC. 6. The M. E. High Priest, King and Scribe shall be a Committee on Finance, whose duty it shall be to examine the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer and to audit all bills presented to the Chapter.

ARTICLE VIII.

MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. Royal Arch Masons in good standing in a Blue Lodge in regular standing may be admitted to membership in this Chapter upon presentation of a proper Demit, and a petition in writing accompanied with a fee of Five Dollars, which petition shall be referred to a Committee of three members, who shall report at the same or the next stated Convocation, when if not elected the fee shall be returned.

PETITION FOR THE DEGREES.

SEC. 2. Each petition for the degrees in this Chapter must be in writing, accompanied with the fee of Ten Dollars, which shall be referred to a Committee of three members who shall carefully examine into the character and standing of the petitioner; and his proficiency in the first three degrees of Masonry, and report at the same or the next stated Convocation, when if not elected the fee shall be returned.

FEES FOR DEGREES.

SEC. 3. The fees for conferring the degrees of Mark Master, Past Master, Most Excellent Master and Royal Arch, shall be as follows:

For the degree of Mark Master, Ten Dollars, which shall accompany the petition.

For Past Master, Five Dollars.

For Most Excellent Master, Five Dollars,

For Royal Arch, Ten Dollars.

Which sums shall be severally paid at or before the time of taking each degree.

SEC. 4. Each member shall sign these By-Laws on the night of his admission on Demit, or Exaltation; and no one shall be entitled to a vote until he has signed said Laws

ARTICLE IX.

ANNUAL DUES.

Each member of this Chapter shall pay into the Treasury the sum of Two dollars per annum, which shall include the Grand Chapter dues, and shall be due on the first day of January of each year, and payable before the annual Convocation; and any member indebted to this Chapter shall not be entitled to vote, and ineligible to any Office, and if in arrears for one year, he may be suspended after due notice and trial, unless by a unanimous vote of the Chapter he be exempted from payment of said arrearages.

ARTICLE X.

DEMITs.

A Demit may be granted to any member (except an elective Officer,) who may have moved without the jurisdiction of this Chapter, or for the purpose of petitioning for a new Chapter, provided he be in good standing and not indebted to the Chapter.

ARTICLE XI.

DISCIPLINE AND JURISDICTION.

SEC. 1. A regular charge in writing, specifying the nature of the offense, and signed by the accuser shall be delivered to the Secretary, who shall read it at the next regular Convocation, at which time the Most Excellent High Priest shall appoint the time for trial, of which it shall be the duty of the Secretary to give due and timely notice to the accused, who shall be entitled to a copy of the charges, and to ample time and opportunity to prepare his defense.

SEC. 2. All trials shall be in the highest degree to which the accused has attained, and the examination of witnesses shall take place in the presence of both the accused and accuser, whether in the Chapter, or before a Committee.

SEC. 3. The form and manner of trial shall be the same as that laid down by the Grand Lodge of Illinois for the government of its Subordinate Lodges, where the same does not conflict with any law, edict or usage of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of this State.

SEC. 4. This Chapter may exercise disciplinary jurisdiction over all Royal Arch Masons, and Masons of any of the dependant degrees, residing within its jurisdiction, Provided, That in all cases of discipline, the accused shall have the same rights, and the same rules be observed as are prescribed for members of this Chapter, and by the usages of the Order.

SEC. 5. If a member be expelled from this Chapter, the Secretary shall forthwith notify the Grand Chapter thereof, and such other Masonic Bodies as the nature of the case may require.

ARTICLE XII.

BY-LAWS AND RULES.

SEC. 1. These By-Laws, together with all ordinances, rules, orders and regulations passed by this Chapter, shall be observed in the Lodges of the dependent degrees, as far as the same are applicable.

SEC. 2. No alteration, addition or amendment shall be made to these By-Laws unless proposed in writing, and read at a stated meeting, and shall not then be acted upon until the second stated meeting thereafter, when it shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members present for its adoption, unless directed to do so by the Grand Chapter, to conform to the regulations of the Grand Chapter of this State, or of the General Grand Chapter of the United States.

ORDER OF BUSINESS:

1. Reading of Record.
2. Reading and Referring Petitions.
3. Reports of Committees on Petitions.
4. Balloting on Petitions.
5. Miscellaneous Business.
6. Work.

ELY S. PARKER COUNCIL, No. 60.

Ely S. Parker Council, No. 60, was constituted under a Dispensation from the Thrice Illustrious George E. Loumsburg, Grand Puissant of the Grand Council of Illinois, July 9th, 1873, and is duly authorized to confer the degrees of Royal, Super Excellent and Select Master's degrees, the eighth, ninth and tenth degrees of the Ancient York Rite. The history of this Council is brief, named after the first Master of Miners' Lodge and High Priest of Jo Daviess Chapter, Gen. Ely S. Parker, the talented Indian Chief, a grandson of Red Jacket, whose history every reader of American events is familiar with, now the present Chief of the Six Nations. It was to be expected that the constituting of this body would draw together a large number of prominent Masons. The expectation was fully realized, as the following notice of the event taken from the daily papers fully show :

"Wednesday, July 9th, was a grand gala day for the brethren of the Mystic Tie, of this city. The event being the organization of a Council of Cryptic Masonry, an occasion which brought to our city many distinguished alike in civil life and eminent in Masonry. Among these were Hon H. C. Burchard, M. C., Gen. Smith D. Atkins, Hon. Rob't Little, W. S. Best, L. L. Munn, Jas. S. McCall, C. H. Hutchinson, W. D. Rowell, W. O. Wright, F. Kindinger, J. S. Gates, and S. K. Schofield all of Freeport Council No. 39.

The Craft were called to labor at 8 P. M., by Comp. J. C. Smith, the following Companions presiding:

W. S. Best—Thrice Illustrious Grand Master.
 L. L. Munn—Deputy Illustrious Grand Master.
 James S. McCall—Principal Con. of Work.
 C. H. Hntchison—Captain of Guards.
 Robert Little—Recorder.

After the work of constituting was completed the following well known Galena Masons were inducted into the Cryptic Rite:

Gen. W. R. Rowley, S. O. Stillman, S. K. Miner, R. H. Fiddick,
 J. C. Calderwood, J. Fawcett, C. S. Bentley, G. H. Mars,
 A. J. Lonchheim, Sidney Hunkins, A. H. Moody, Daniel Stewart,
 Daniel LeBetter, M. Coleman, J. M. Spratt, W. R. Holder.

The Craft continued at labor until the "wee sma hours ayant the twae," when, after addresses appropriate to the occasion by Companions J. C. Smith, L. L. Munn, James McCall and others, the Craft were called from labor to refreshment, when amid a "a flow of reason" and an interchange of Masonic sentiments, the brethren disbanded, well pleased with the occasion, which called them together.

"Ely S. Parker Council" is named after the eminent Mason, Gen. Parker, late Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and the first W. M. of Miners' Lodge and H. P. of Jo Daviess Chapter of this city.

Galena Masons are known throughout this and other jurisdictions as thorough workers, and may well feel proud of having all the Masonic Bodies in this city fully officered and in complete working order to confer all the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted York Rite, which are as follows:

Miners' Lodge, No. 273, A. F. and A. M.
 Jo Daviess Chapter, No. 51 R. A. M.
 Ely S. Parker Council, U. D., (now No. 60.)
 Galena Commandery, No. 40, Knights Templars.

The above named bodies are under the charge of that well known Masonic worker, D. D. G. M., Gen. J. C. Smith, who has the distinguished honor conferred upon him of having received all the Masonic degrees of the York and Scottish Rites of Masonry."

FROM THE CENTRE OF THE GRAND COUNCIL OF ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

To All and Every, our Illustrious Companions, Send Greeting—KNOW YE, That at the Petition of our Illustrious and Beloved Companions, John C. Smith, Simeon K. Miner, Mahlon Coleman, Daniel LeBetter, John C. Calderwood, Charles S. Bentley, Daniel Stewart, William R. Holder, Richard H. Fiddick, Amasa H. Moody, Sidney Hunkins, Jacob Fawcett, Samuel O. Stillman, James M. Spratt, Gerhard H. Mars, and A. J. Louchhiem, residing at or near Galena, in the County of Jo Daviess, and State of Illinois, do hereby constitute the said Companions into a Regular Council of Royal and Select Masters, to be opened at the aforesaid Galena, by the name of Ely S. Parker Council No. 60. And do further at the said Petition, and the great trust and confidence reposed in the above named Companions, hereby appoint John C. Smith, Thrice Illustrious Grand Master, Richard H. Fiddick, Deputy Illustrious Grand Master, Jacob Fawcett, Principal Conductor of the Work, for opening the said Council, and for such time only as may be thought proper by the Companions thereof. It being my will that said appointments shall in no case affect any future election of Officers of the Council, but that the same shall be according to the Regulations of the Council, and consistent with the General Laws of the Society, contained in the Book of Constitutions. And (do) hereby require you, the said John C. Smith, to take special care that all and every, the said Companions are or have been, regularly made Royal, Select and Super Excellent Masters; and that they do perform and observe and keep all the rules and orders contained in the Book of Constitutions, also such as may from time to time be transmitted to them from the Grand Council, and further, That you do, from time to time cause to be entered in a book kept for that purpose an account of your proceedings in the Council, together with such regulations as shall be made for the good government thereof, a copy of which you are in nowise to omit laying before the Grand Council once in each year, together with a list of the members of the Council. That you annually pay into the Grand Treasury, such sums as may be required of you toward the Grand Council Fund, and moreover I hereby will and do require of you the said John C. Smith, as soon as conveniently may be, to send an account in writing, of what shall be done by virtue of these presents.

Given at Chicago, under my hand and Seal of Masonry, this twentieth day of October, A. Dep. 2873, A. D. 1873.

Signed, GEO. E. LOUWSBURG,

GALENA COMMANDERY No. 40, KNIGHTS TEMPLARS.

This Body, duly authorized to confer the Chivalrous Orders of Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templars, and Knights of Malta, was duly organized Sept. 29, 1871.

Owing to the absence from home of the R. E. Grand Commander, John M. Rierson, the Deputy Grand Commander, Wiley M. Egan, issued his Dispensation bearing date Sept. 19, 1871, under which the Body was convened, and such was their work that the Grand Commandery was justified in granting a regular Charter at its Session which convened the next month. What was done at the constituting of this body is best told in the language of a writer of that day. What was expected of this Chivalrous organization and what has been done, its work will attest:

“GALENA COMMANDERY, U. D.”

“While Galena has for many years had a flourishing Blue Lodge of Masons, and a Royal Arch Chapter there has been no Commandery here. There being several Sir Knights in the County, and others wishing to receive the Orders, measures were taken to establish a Commandery in Galena, and the project was brought to a successful issue. The first regular conclave of the Commandery was held last Friday, at Masonic Hall, under the charge of the officers previously appointed: Gen. John C. Smith, Eminent ✓ Commander, Samuel Cook, Generalissimo, and Simeon K. Miner, Captain General. There were present not less than forty distinguished Sir Knights from abroad, to assist in conferring the Orders of Knight- ✓ hood. There were about twenty-five from Freeport, among whom we noticed Past Grand Commander Dr. N. F. Prentice, Hon. H. C. Burchard, M. C., Gen. ✓ Smith D. Atkins, Hon. E. L. Cronkrite, Mayor of ✓ Freeport, Dr. W. J. McFlim, Robert Little, U. S. Collector, James S. McCall, Capt. Young, and others. From Dunleith there were Hon. Samuel Cook, Hon. ✓ John Olinger, Homer Graves, and Capt. J. M. Daggett, while Dubuque was represented by about twelve Knights, Past Deputy Grand Commander Horace Tuttle and Dr. W. P. Allen being in charge. Sir ✓ James J. Peck, of Iowa City, and others from a distance were also present.

"The Commandery was opened at 3 o'clock P. M., continuing in session until 6 o'clock next morning, except during the brief recesses for refreshment. Orders were conferred upon the following named Companions: Gen. W. R. Rowley, Daniel Stewart, M. ✓ Coleman, Daniel LeBetter, J. C. Calderwood, and W. R. Burkhard. P. G. Commander Prentice and P.

D. G. Commander Tuttle conferring the Orders, with Dr. Allen as Prelate.

“At nine o’clock in the evening a recess was called, and the Sir Knights in full uniform, proceeded to the residence of Mr. L. S. Felt, to pay their respects to President Grant. They were as fine looking a body of men as ever paraded our streets. The President received them cordially, and after all had shaken hands with him, they returned to their Asylum to resume work.

“At 12 o’clock the hour for refreshments having arrived, the Sir Knights repaired to Owens’ Hall, where a fine banquet had been prepared. At the close of the banquet, work was resumed, and continued till the hour of departure of the trains next morning.

“The Commandery starts out with flattering prospects, and its first Conclave was a pleasant one to all concerned.”

Since the above was written more than fifty Companions have been created and dubbed with the Chivalrous orders of Christian Masonry. The Commandery has been called upon to attend two Templar funerals: That of Sir Knight W. D. Putnam, of Warren, and the early and warm friend of our Commandery, Past Grand Commander Dr. N. F. Prentice, of Freeport, each of whom were buried with Knightly honors, at the place of their late residence.

On the 15th day of June, 1874, the occasion of laying the Corner Stone of the new Public Hall, and the Dedication of the new Masonic building, Galena Commandery was out in full force numbering over thirty swords, and "under the command of Generalissimo Sir W. R. Rowley, assisted by Capt. Gen. Sir C. S. Bentley, excited the admiration of the spectators for the rapidity with which they executed the various Templar movements in passing from columns of three to that of the Passion Cross and several other movements known to Templar Masonry."

Fraters, our labors are ended. We have not intended, nor did you expect, when you requested that we rescue from oblivion the names of the early workers in Masonry in this city, that we would give you a treatise on the Mystic brotherhood, but that we would look up the "Old Records," seek out the names of all connected with the Craft, and place them with the By-Laws of the present bodies in one book, that each and every Galena Mason might the better trace his genealogy (Masonic history) from the organization of the first Lodge, "Strangers' Union," to the present day.

If we have succeeded in doing this with a reasonable degree of accuracy, and have met your expectations, we are amply recompensed, and will close our labors in the firm knowledge that the Galena Masons have done what it behooves every Masonic body to do—to put their work on record that it may be in the hands of every member.

We would, therefore, fraternally and courteously bid you an affectionate Farewell.

OF GALENA COMMANDERY.

THE GRAND COMMANDERY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLARS OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

To whom it may concern,—Greeting;

WHEREAS, HERETOFORE, I O-WIT:—On the nineteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-one, a Dispensation was granted to Sir John Corson Smith, Simeon Kingsley Miner, Mahlon Coleman, Mortimer Marcus Wheeler, William Rudolph Burkhard, William Reuben Rowley, John Carter Calderwood, Daniel LeBetter, and Daniel Stewart, to open and hold a Commandery of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders, in the City of Galena, in the County of Jo Daviess, and State of Illinois, by the name of "GALENA COMMANDERY."

AND WHEREAS, Application has been made to this Grand Commandery for a perpetual Charter or Warrant, to enable them to continue in all the rights and privileges of a regularly constituted Commandery, and a copy of the By-Laws, and of the Minutes of their proceedings having been submitted for our inspection and approval, and no cause adverse to the granting the prayer of said applicants to us appearing;

NOW KNOW YE, That we, the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Illinois, reposing special confidence and trust in the fidelity, zeal, and knightly courtesy of the officers and Knights of the said Commandery, and for the purpose of diffusing the benefits of the Order, and promoting the happiness of man, by virtue of the power in us vested; Do by these presents, recognize said Commandery to be known as "GALENA COMMANDERY No. 40," as regularly constituted and established under the jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery with full and adequate powers to confer the several Orders of Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templar and Knights of Malta, upon such person or persons possessing the requisite qualifications, as they may think proper. And we do also recognize the present Officers and Knights of the said Commandery, with continuance of the same powers and privileges to them and their successors forever, except that the Officers of said Commandery shall not be entitled to act as members of our Grand Commandery, until they are duly elected and installed under this Charter: Provided, Nevertheless, that the said Officers and Knights, and their successors pay due respect to our said Grand Commandery, the Statutes and Regulations thereof, and the constitution and edicts of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America; and in no way remove the ancient land-marks of our order, otherwise this Charter, and all things therein contained to be void and of no effect.

Given at Chicago, in the State of Illinois, this twenty-second day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and of the order, seven hundred and fifty-three.

!Signed.

WILEY M. EGAN, Grand Com.
DANIEL DUSTIN, Dep. Grand Com.
JAMES A. HAWLEY, Grand Generalissimo.
HIRAM W. HUBBARD, Grand Capt. Gen.
JAMES H. MILES, Grand Recorder.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The name of this Commandery shall be "GALENA COMMANDERY, No. 40," under the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of Illinois.

ARTICLE II.

STATED CONCLAVES.

The stated conclaves of this Commandery shall be held on the first Thursday of each month at 7½ o'clock, P. M.

ARTICLE III.

ANNUAL CONCLAVES.

The Annual Conclave for the election of Officers shall be held on the first Thursday of December of each year.

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS,

The Eminent Commander, Generalissimo, Captain General, Prelate, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer, Recorder, Standard Bearer, Sword Bearer, and Warden shall be elected by ballot, at the annual Conclave of each year.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS APPOINTED.

Previous to the Installation, the Eminent Commander-elect shall appoint a Captain of the Guards, three Guards and two Stewards.

ARTICLE VI.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The Installation of Officers shall occur as soon after the election as may be convenient, but on or before Saint John's day, December 27th of each year.

ARTICLE VII.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

The duties of the several Officers shall be in accordance with the work and ritual of the Order, the traditions, statutes, and regulations of the Grand Commandery of the State, and the Constitution of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America.

ARTICLE VIII.

BOND OF TREASURER.

Before entering upon the duties of his office, the Treasurer shall give good and sufficient surety for the faithful performance and discharge of his duty, to be approved by the first three Officers-elect.

ARTICLE IX.

ANNUAL REPORTS OF SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

At each annual conclave, the Treasurer and Recorder shall render an account of all moneys received and paid out by them respectively, for the current year, which accounts shall be examined by the Finance Committee, who shall report the result of their examinations to the Commandery, and proper action shall be had thereon.

ARTICLE X.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Eminent Commander, Generalissimo, and Captain-General shall be a Committee on Finance, and all bills shall be referred to and audited by them.

ARTICLE XI.

ANNUAL DUES.

The yearly dues of members shall be three dollars (which includes the Grand Commandery dues) payable on or before the annual conclave in each year.

ARTICLE XII.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. Any member of this Commandery not indebted for dues or otherwise, may become a life member of this Commandery and exempt from the payment of further dues, by paying into the Treasury thereof the sum of thirty dollars, and thereby remain and be entitled to all the rights and privileges of active membership.

SEC. 2. Any member of this Commandery who has regularly paid all dues and assessments against him for twenty years, shall become a life member and be exempt from the payment of all further dues, and be entitled to all the rights and privileges of active membership.

SEC. 3. Any Sir Knight becoming a life member, as provided in Section 1 and 2, shall remain as before, subject to all the laws, rules and edicts of the Order, and its ancient landmarks, usages and constitutions; and in case of expulsion shall forfeit the sum so paid for life membership, and all the privileges of said life membership.

ARTICLE XIII.

RECORDER AND CAPTAIN OF GUARD.

The Recorder and Captain of the Guard shall be exempt from the payment of yearly dues, and shall each receive one dollar for each night's services.

ARTICLE XIV.

INDEBTEDENESS FOR DUES.

It shall be the duty of the Recorder at each Annual Conclave, to read the names in open Commandery, of any members who shall be in arrears for due, for one year or over, and any member so in arrears shall not be entitled to vote at the Annual Conclaves or be eligible to office, and such action shall be had in such cases as may be directed by a majority of the members present.

ARTICLE XV.

FEES FOR ORDERS.

The Fees for conferring the orders shall be forty dollars, viz: Twenty dollars for the Order of the Red Cross (ten dollars of which shall accompany the petition) and twenty dollars for the Order of Knights Templar, and Knight of Malta, which amounts shall be paid at or before the time of conferring the several orders. The Fee for membership of a Knight

Templar shall be five dollars, which shall accompany the petition, and in case of the rejection of a petitioner for the orders, or for membership, the Recorder shall at once return said fee to such petitioner with a notice of his rejection.

ARTICLE XVI.

PETITIONS.

Every petition for the orders or for membership, shall be recommend by two members of this Commandery in good standing, and a unanimous ballot shall be necessary to elect.

ARTICLE XVII.

FAILURE OF CANDIDATE TO APPEAR.

A Candidate elect failing to appear to receive the Orders within six months after being notified in writing of his election, shall be required to present a new petition to be acted upon, and the fee accompanying the first shall be forfeited to the Commandery.

ARTICLE XVIII.

DEMITs.

A Demit may be granted to any member (excepting Officers) in good standing, and clear of the books, on his application, at a stated Conclave.

ARTICLE XIX.

DRESS AND UNIFORM.

Every member attending the stated Conclaves shall be dressed uniformly in dark, and in case of failure or neglect to provide himself with the Regulation Uniform of a Knight Templar within three months after his membership shall commence, he shall not be allowed to appear in public with the Commandery, and such failure or neglect may, in the discretion of the Commandery, be sufficient cause for the suspension of the delinquent member from the rights and privileges of the order.

ARTICLE XX.

CHARGES.

Whenever charges unbecoming a Knight Templar shall be preferred against a member, such action shall be had, as is consistent with the traditions and rules of the order, and in conformity with the statutes and regulations of the Grand Comandery of the State, and the Constitution of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America.

ARTICLE XXI.

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS.

Any proposed amendment to these By-Laws shall be presented in writing at a stated Conclave, and lie over until the next stated Conclave, when action shall be had thereon; a two-thirds vote of all members present shall be necessary to the adoption of any such amendment.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The order of Business shall be as follows:

1. Reading of Records.
2. Reading and referring Petitions.
3. Reports of Committees on Petitions.
4. Balloting on Petitions.
5. Miscellaneous Business.
5. Work.
